7. Ecosystem support

At the same time, in the past 6 months, we have provided content/activity support for more than 100 projects in the Polkadot ecosystem to meet their needs in ecological development. We will continue to provide support and assistance to these projects in the future. Ultimately, we would like to thank Polkadot Treasury for supporting us. We have obtained better content, more fans, and gradually established collaboration with more teams with the support. We also have more confidence to help with the development of Polkadot and the ecology in the Chinese market. And this excites us so much. At the same time, we have also shared some high-quality content overseas, gaining more attention and recognition.

Although the current main market is not friendly, we are aware that this is a good time to expand and develop Polkadot ecological construction, so we will continue to make unremitting efforts to produce Polkadot ecological content and help Polkadot ecological development.
