

Contract of Employment

The undersigned, hereinafter "clients", employ the law firm of Dewy, Attorney at law, hereinafter "attorneys" to handle all claims and legal defense of the Clients.

Clients and attorneys agree as follows:

1. Initial Evaluation: Clients agree to pay the cost of obtaining necessary records and of having an expert evaluate clients' case, and will deposit $20,000 with attorneys for this purpose. Any balance remaining will be refunded to clients if attorneys do not accept the case. Attorneys charge no fee for this evaluation.

2. Attorney Fee: Attorneys will receive an attorney fee of one-third of all sums recovered by settlement or trial. In the event an appeal is filed by any party, attorneys will receive forty percent of all sums recovered after the date a notice of appeal is filed. "All sums recovered" includes all monies paid in settlement or award of damages, attorney fees, costs, penalties or interest. The attorney fee will be calculated before deduction of costs. If there is no recovery, a set fee of 20,000 a day the trial or claim is in effect, will be billed to the client.

3. Costs: As required by attorney ethics rules, clients are responsible for payment of costs. Costs may include, but are not limited to, filing fees, service fees, witness fees, research fees, and charges for investigation, records, medical reports, photographs, exhibits, photocopies, telecopies, telephone long distance, postage, travel and accommodations, videotaping and depositions.

4. Structured Settlement: If any part of a recovery calls for annuity payments in the future, the attorney fee on this portion of the recovery will be computed based on the cost of the annuity, if known, or on the present value of the annuity, and shall be paid from the cash portion of the recovery at the time of settlement.

5. Authority, Duties and Representations: Clients authorize attorneys to file a lawsuit if and when attorneys consider it advisable. Clients will cooperate with attorneys and will timely respond to attorneys' requests. Attorneys will make no settlement of clients' claims without clients' consent. Clients acknowledge that attorneys have made no guarantee of a successful result, and that any statements regarding the merit or outcome of the case are professional opinion only.

6. Associate Counsel: Attorneys reserve the right to associate other attorneys in clients' representation, without additional expense to clients. Clients consent to such association and to a division of attorney fees as may be agreed upon between associated counsel and attorneys.

7. Withdrawal and Discharge: If clients discharge attorneys, or if attorneys withdraw for cause, clients agree to pay attorneys a reasonable attorney fee and any unreimbursed costs. The attorney fee shall be, at attorneys' option, either an hourly fee for the attorney and paralegal time expended on the case; the contingency percentage of the last settlement offers; or, a probate portion of the contingent fee.

8. Special Power of Attorney: Clients grant to attorneys clients' power of attorney to act as clients' attorneys in fact to do all things necessary and proper in handling clients' case, including the execution of checks, drafts, releases and other agreements pertaining to this case only.
