It was great seeing you at (Event name), (first name)! (insert personal thoughts or anecdote related to the event, how they played, etc)

As I mentioned, I wanted to share some information with you regarding pursuing a career in the sport you love. Please explore the following options about how to start your career in the golf industry today!

For those interested in attaining PGA Membership, please review the following two options:

1. PGA PGM Universities - we currently have 16 participating universities located across the United States. These programs allow you to earn a degree while getting your PGA Membership and gain extremely valuable internship experience. To explore each program, please visit <https://www.pga.org/membership/university-program/participating-universities>
2. PGA PGM Associate Program - this program allows you to gain your Membership outside of a University, on your own time, at your own pace. <https://www.pga.org/membership/associate-program>

As you move forward on your journey in golf, there is immediate action you can take advantage of to help you find open opportunities in your area:

1. Create an account at pga.org
2. Create a Job Seeker Profile and find your career match on the PGA Job Board
3. Connect with a PGA Recruitment Team Member
4. Explore careers in the golf industry through the interactive MyJourney Golf
5. Find your more opportunities in the industry by visiting MGYT Industry Job Board

By doing these easy steps, which each take under two minutes to complete, you'll have the inside edge to help build your career in the $84-billion golf industry.

Additionally, our PGA Recruitment Team is an amazing group who specialize in providing information on the golf industry to prospective employees as well as helping to connect them with the necessary tools and resources to help grow their careers in the sport. I've included our designated Recruiting Specialist, (insert name) and contact information below and you can reach out to her/him directly at any time.

A career in golf not only allows you an opportunity to grow and work in the sport you love, but also allows the chance to continue your playing career at the highest competitive level as a PGA Member. No matter the track you choose, there is a job waiting within the sport and we're here to help you find it.

We look forward to hearing from you!
