

Remember & Reflect

Think back over the past year, jot down some memories and some wisdom you would like to pass on to the next class.

3 things you discovered this year. 	1. 2. 3.
2 memories that stick out to you. 	1. 2.
1 piece of advice you have. 	1.

Connect

Use your 3-2-1 reflection above to help you write your how to survive letter.

Your letter might look something like this:

Dear ____ graders,

Paragraph 1:

Snapshot of the year and what they will be doing, books they might read, activities they might do, field trips they might attend. The 2 most memorable memories that they have of the year.

Paragraph 2:

What the AdV teachers are like. What are their rules. What are their pet peeves. What is important to these teachers.

Paragraph 3:

What advice would you give to the students reading this letter.