accepting applications: the 2027 Fortis Fellowship (fully funded)

The Fortis Society is an international, lifelong network of 100+ leaders of 50+ nationalities, each of whom forged their own path from humble beginnings. Members work in law, medicine, government, technology, academia, the arts and more.
Applications are open for the 2027 Fortis Fellowship, a cohort of roughly 15 people:
- Five months of virtual programming: mentorship from existing members of the Society, trainings in leadership and cross-sector collaboration, brain trusts for real challenges, and a cohort project
- A fully funded Fellows Retreat (June 8 to 10, 2027) in the mountains outside Medellin, Colombia, then the Annual Summit in Medellín (June 10 to 13), including travel and stay
- Lifelong membership: completing the Fellowship is how new members join the Fortis Society
Fortis looks for: humble beginnings; work aimed at improving individual and collective wellbeing, now or later in your career; ambition at scale; and generosity toward your community. Final-year students, graduate students and early-career professionals (0 to 5 years of experience) are encouraged to apply, from any sector.
Application & program: three short answers, a short video, and your resume or portfolio. There is no cost to apply or attend. Fellows commit 2 to 4 hours a month and must attend in person June 8 to 13, 2027.
Applications close Sunday, November 8, 2026. Learn more and apply: form.fortissociety.org/apply
