 All artwork is accepted under a 50/50 consignment agreement between the SHCG and the artist on the retail price of sold artworks.

The artist is responsible to the SHCG a 10% referral fee on any commissions generated as a direct result of the exhibition.

SHCG will be responsible for shipping sold artworks to customers after the close of the exhibition.

The Curator and/or Executive Director retain right of refusal in regards to any artwork that is deemed inappropriate for the visitors of the Folk Art Center. This may include, but is not limited to, works depicting nudity, violence, and profane/vulgar/racist/graphic language or imagery. The Folk Art Center welcomes everyone, and our goal is to make sure that people of all ages, races, and creeds are comfortable during their visit. In addition, work must also maintain quality of craftsmanship set forth by the standards of the SHCG. Anything less is also at risk for refusal.
