

Group : Cathy, Kathy, Amanda,Settla

Element: Stepmother is an active and positive woman who is a good example for women

Scene 1:

The stepmother is Crying to the great immortal God that she had experienced remarried after her first husband's death. Now after her second husband died, she has to raise her two biological daughter and Cinderella. However when she ask three daughters do some housework, two sisters are accepted but Cinderella is passive and refused to do anything. She is always complaining.

Scene 2:

The stepmother hopes all her three daughters to be elegant ladies. So she wants to teach them all what she knows. Before they take part in the evening party, she teaches them how to dress in the evening party and how to behave well. Both her biological two sisters make efforts to learn conscientiously. They are active to inquire their mother what they don't understand. However, Cinderella doesn't learn completely. She thinks that her stepmother is stupid and what she does is little or no effect. She doesn't take her stepmother mother's advice. It's enough to see that she is passive to transform. Compared to her, her stepmother is an independent, confident and successful woman. She is devoted to being an active woman when confront with the life.

Scene 3:

Cinderella just lies on her bed and eats a cake. Then her stepmother shout to her, “Cinderella, the prince ask his imperial assistants to find the girl who fits this glass shoe. Every girl in the country has to try it. Go downstairs! Now!” However, Cinderella is too lazy to move, so she still lies and does not answer to her stepmother. Five minutes past, the stepmother doesn’t wait for Cinderella, so she goes upstairs to wake up Cinderella. She pulls Cinderella to let her try-on the shoe but Cinderella refuses because of her idleness. After 30 minutes, they go downstairs finally, but these assistants have gone already. So Cinderella loses a chance to be the princess forever.