

How Christianity Changed Human Nature

Supplementary Volume 3: An Insider's View of the Touch of Grace and the Birth of the New Man by

Kari Konkola

The books in this series provide additional details and supporting evidence to the thesis set forth in volumes 1 and 2 of How Christianity Changed Human Nature.

Supplementary Volume 1: The Most Dangerous Sins and their Destructive Effects in Today's America

Supplementary Volume 2: Theology's "Sight of Sin" as an Advanced Form of Today's "Discovering One's Unconscious"

Supplementary Volume 3: An Insider's View of the Touch of Grace and the Birth of the New Man

Copyright, Kari Konkola 2026

Table of Contents

INTRODUCTION	5
The purpose of this book series	5
Background summary of the old Christian psychology	6
Conversion's central role in old Christian psychology	14
CHAPTER I, DEPRESSION AND PREPARATION	18
Introduction	18
The third step of conversion: depression	19
The sloughs of despondency	21
Controlling the depression	22
Ensuring sufficient depression	24
Working to get grace	26
CHAPTER II, AN INSIDER'S VIEW OF THE TOUCH OF GRACE	30
Detecting the Touch of Grace and its associated new birth	32
When exactly did the Touch of Grace happen?	35
CHAPTER III, THE EMOTIONS OF TRUE, CONVERTED CHRISTIANS	37
The Christian version of primacy of affect psychology	37
Instinctive short term emotional reactions were redirected, not lost	41
Pleasure in religion incomprehensible to the worldly	43
CHAPTER IV, THE THOUGHTS OF CONVERTED CHRISTIANS	45
Methods of thought control	51
The Christian mind	53
CHAPTER V, THE BEHAVIOR OF CONVERTED CHRISTIANS	56
Loving God	57
Hating sin	60
Mortifying excessive love of the world	62

CHAPTER VI, GENERAL CHARACTERISTICS OF CONVERTED CHRISTIANS	66
Power to keep the law	66
Conversion was never complete	67
The sins were different	68
The struggle in the godly was not continuous	69
Falls of the godly weakened sin	70
Touch of Grace could not be lost	71
Justification by God's Grace only	72
Criticizing Arminians about willpower's role in conversion	74
SUMMARY: ACCOMPLISHING THE IMPOSSIBLE CHANGE	78
CHAPTER VII, HYPOCRISY'S MEANING AND IMPORTANCE	80
Definition	81
Open and closed hypocrisy	83
CHAPTER VIII, GENERAL SIGNS OF HYPOCRISY	86
Concern about impression	86
Strict outward obedience	87
Concern about the sins of others	89
Variability in personality	93
Self-Evaluations of hypocrisy are unreliable	94
CHAPTER IX, SPECIFIC SIGNS OF HYPOCRISY IN BEHAVIOR	97
Favorite subject of discussion	97
Company	100
Recreations	100
What do people avoid?	100
Body language	101
Temptations	102
Wealth	104
Promotion	104
Secrecy	105

Insults	105
Alcohol	106
CHAPTER X, DETECTING HYPOCRISY IN ONESELF	108
CHAPTER XI, PARADOX: HYPOCRISY MADE HYPOCRISY IMPOSSIBLE	110
APPENDIX 1, UNACCEPTABLE FORMS OF RELIGIOSITY	114
Behavior without love	114
Behavior motivated by conscience	116
Education or habit	119
Passions controlling each other	120
Knowledge and belief	121
In sum	125
APPENDIX 2, TRANSLATING OLD THEOLOGICAL TERMINOLOGY	127
Introduction	127
Original sin	127
The law demands the Impossible	128
Justification by God's Grace only	129
Faith only justifies	129
Predestination	129
Once saved, always saved	130
The freedom of a Christian	130
APPENDIX 3, LOVE OF RELIGION AND HATRED OF SIN AS SIGNS OF SALVATION.	132
William Perkins	132
Arthur Dent	136
Richard Rogers	137
Samuel Hieron	140
Daniel Dyke	142
Richard Sibbes	143
John Preston	145
Thomas Hooker	148
Samuel Smith	150

Richard Baxter

151

WHERE TO GO FROM HERE

154