August

- While it is not known if Deimos has ADHD or not, he does operate better under pressure according to the Deimos plush description: <https://curiouscat.live/Krinkels/post/1325941793>
- A Nevadean's consciousness gets scattered/fractured as their S-3LF dissolves in the Other Place: <https://curiouscat.live/Krinkels/post/1326648865>
- The Nexus Core didn't contribute to the A.A.H.W.'s creation. The A.A.H.W. was created due to Hank's existence: <https://curiouscat.live/Krinkels/post/1326813622>
- Deimos' S-3LF was reformed with rocks because he was fractured and in the process of being re-absorbed: <https://curiouscat.live/Krinkels/post/1327193394>

January

- There's different types of Half-Mags; the Retainers being an "elite" type of Half-Mag; the A.A.H.W. Half-Mags seen in M:PN; and the simpler types shown in DedmosRebuilt.flr and MC12: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1305178286>
- Most of the design choices made by Krinkels fall into the "rule of cool", there being no deeper meanings: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1305084646>
- Retainers are a type of Half-Mag: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1305136938>

September

- Slaughter Time inspired Hofnarr to become a clown: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1289987022>

July

- Phobos was dead for many years after the events of M:PNC 1.5, which caused the Nexus Core to have low levels of activity. The Nexus spent their time working on a way to bring Phobos back: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1284432795>
- The A.A.H.W. units were "turning a lil' red" on their stay in the Other Place, this explains why the ATP units had "red flesh": <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1284722361>
- Telekinesis is a tiring action for a Retainer to perform: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1283992452>
- Tricky lost a foot in MC9.5 Part 2 because his body got way too skinny for both feet to fit: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1283992921>

April

- The inspiration for the Employers were more tied to the Investors from Venture Bros. rather than the Employers from Half-Life. The Employers then started evolving more into "universe-scale janitors" as the Madness series went on: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1273389279>

March

- Doc's interference to revive Hank is just one of the many tendrils of The Machine that yanks Hank back into Nevada: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1269719787>
- The Auditor might be inferior to the other Employers due to his proclivity to pick fights with the mortal Nevadeans. Krinkels thinks that comparing and contrasting the Employers is meaningless and is entirely based on our notions of what is valuable: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1269252278>
- S.Q. doesn't want to be an enemy of Hank because Doc understands that Hank won't stay dead, so instead he uses him as an asset to have limited control of: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1269329915>
- Phobos wouldn't invest in cryptocurrency: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1268344193>
- The Keystone Fragment would be small if it was worn by a Mag: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1268500927>
- Krinkels' inspiration for the Binary Sword is that he thinks that swords are cool: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1268851411>
- (Complement 1, 2) Killing someone in the Other Place just "starts a new story elsewhere": <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1266763634>
- Krinkels wouldn't bring any Madness character to travel to other US states, as said states don't exist in the Madness world: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1265559780>

February

- All of the Employers do business in Nevada. However, Auditor is the only one that interacts and picks fights with the inhabitants, which led him to trouble: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1262952542>

November

- Hank benefits from having his physical aptitude come naturally: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1252660664>
- Auditor is described as an "idiot" by Krinkels due to his poorly thought decisions: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1253632516>
- The Machine is more powerful than the Employers. The Machine has an unknowable agenda that dwarfs both the Employers and Nevadeans. The Employers have a shred of insight about The Machine, but not the whole picture: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1252193991>
- N51 tried to destroy the Artifact because they knew that it was valuable to "incongruent" factions, such as the S.Q.: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1252318796>
- Doc enmeshed the Arena character to the Mandatus to keep Nevada alive, creating a time loop. Status Quo has a clear agenda: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1252025352>

August

- Rich is a "superior employee" than Jeb and Tricky, Krinkels possibly alluding to his better loyalty: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1229986647>
- It's impossible to sort a Nevadean's size due to them not existing alongside humans: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1229958982>

June

- An A.A.H.W. unit only gets "demoted" when they die, and that happening solves any logistical issues related to their gear: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1220965765>
- Hank wanted to go to the volleyball tryouts he signed for, but couldn't: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1214992076>

May

-Nevada gets progressively worse and difficult the further you get away from it:

<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1212194229>

April

-Sleepwalkers only retain important memories after revival. They get a lot of new information coming up so some of it has to be wiped off:

<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1200109885>

February

-Tricky's loyalties dissolved after his sanity became more dissonant:

<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1184202193>

-The Higher Powers hold a "correct" world view, not a foreign one:

<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1179379708>

-The soldat's eye visor serves the same function as a normal eye:

<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1180174260>

2020

December

-Retainers, as their name implies, retain people in the Other Place:

<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1167991962>

-Rich's reward for being "Employee of the Month" is his photo being hanged up on a wall:

<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1167757037>

-The A.A.H.W. doesn't like or need the Sheriff bad enough for them to revive him. The A.A.H.W. was always an Auditor-run agency, just more transparently so after the Sheriff died:

<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1163322643>

-There are cities in Nevada, such as Nexus City and Nevada Central, but they are all kind of a mess:

<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1159281527>

-Hank doesn't have long hair: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1160383564>

-The Nevadeans have adapted very well to the continual downward spiral Nevada is experiencing.

Nevada is facing some sort of galvanization, its more fragile elements being toppled. Nevada is fighting entropy from both sides. All Nevadeans have to pick a direction and keep going:

<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1160553468>

November

-Nevada looks sort of like a layered sphere: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1156481525>

-If an agent survived an encounter with Hank, he probably wouldn't be believed:

<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1155355881>

October

-There are various Nevadean companies that produce weapons, but there are entities, like the Auditor, that can spawn them: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1146874850>

-The Sleepwalker Program serves as education instead of schools:

<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1146479458>

-Retainers only came for Hank because he is a serious threat, something that Deimos isn't:

<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1145313536>

-The side padding in MC7 Hank and the engineer's outfit serve as asymmetrical armor:

<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1145659105>

-Deimos would have been fine if he followed Doc's plan and didn't screw around a lot in the Other

Place: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1144379588>

September

- A Mag could probably throw a grunt 30-40 units laterally before hitting the ground: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1138926399>
- Deimos would be the most probable person to own a skateboard and do tricks with it: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1141452219>
- The guys in the tent in MC5.5 are not S&D, but they do work for the S.Q. Sanford doesn't smoke: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1140521298>
- Subject 1v02P_6 wasn't used against Hank and Co. because of their poor survive-ability and their high value to the Nexus Core. Hank also wasn't on their radar until the events of M:PN: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1138878355>
- Sanford and Deimos don't have last names: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1138275916>
- Tricky doesn't have a chance against the Auditor: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1137710860>

August

- Outer space in the Madness world is a confusing place. Getting too far away from Nevada will become unfamiliar in ways we can't fathom: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1135188298>
- Deimos unknowingly killed FellowD9 and avoided 2BDamned's chains because they were invasive in his journey, and therefore seen as a threat: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1131765379>
- Rich would keep the Binary Sword clean and safe instead of using it as a weapon: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1133445278>
- Nexus Core units could go rogue, but that thought wouldn't cross their minds due to the benefits they have: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1133496186>
- The implication that animals exist in Nevada due to the existence of hotdogs would be a stretch, according to Krinkels: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1133935726>

July

- Hank would survive the betrayers in ROMP.FLA: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1126224926>
- Hank's outfit in MC5 probably originated from a clothing fabrication store: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1122083859>
- The Auditor was always an Employer: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1124063591>
- The inspirations for the character design in Madness was abstraction, simplicity and a little bit of Rayman: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1124124668>
- Hank is bald: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1124192716>
- Nevadeans have no defined nor differing sexes. There are no children in Nevada: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1121164202>
- Characters wear their bandages permanently due to aesthetics: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1119035761>
- Nevada was "much more interesting" before the Auditor showed up more: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1118143948>
- Things got worse in Nevada after the Normality Restoration process initiated in MC8: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1117875128>
- Sanford and Deimos stole the MC9 car after An Experiment. Scrapeface's hands were destroyed by their own absurdness: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1117904499>

June

- Humanity isn't an awful thing to Nevadeans, just rare: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1115479491>
- Jeb was definitely sniping people at the start of MC8. He doesn't shoot "for the hell of it": <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1112614673>
- Nevadean strength top list: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1108528585>
- Hank looks terrible under all his clothing and bandages: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1108572523>

-Krinkels created Sanford and Deimos because he thinks duos are hip as hell:
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1109258982>

May

-Abominations originate from the Nexus Accelerated Training. Implanting S-3LFs too fast causes insanity and physical disfigurement: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1100416305>
-Abomination bites are lethal, but not contagious: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1099254031>
-Madness Combat 1 is still canon: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1099361483>
-The Nexus Core is about as close to the military as it gets. Since they sell a lot of weapons, there would be a lot of armed organized groups that like to boss people around all across Nevada: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1095365065>
-The quality of The Bakery is incredible, and although it has degraded, it is still the best place to get hot dog buns: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1097060196>
-Tricky's speed is always "fast enough", his speed varies wildly: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1096843732>
-The Improbability Drive probably works in a similar fashion to using objects from the 4th physical dimension to store a lot of data: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1095619997>
-There's no signs of a governing state in Nevada, implying a lack of it. The Sheriff could be an exception, but it's more probable that his title as a leader it's more of a parody of structure and he rules like a "well organized warlord": <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1096104275>
-Zeds have more softer teeth than Abominations, making the latter more lethal: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1089661476>
-For those living in Nevada, that's all there is for them. In a cosmological level, Nevada is one part of a very large entity: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1093066847>
-There's different climates in Nevada: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1094860855>

April

-Hank lacks compassion with anyone: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1086708282>

March

-It would be difficult for an A.A.H.W. Soldat to train others, as their knowledge base is largely instinctual. All the A.A.H.W. units benefit from the same sort of imprinted knowledge, so it wouldn't be an issue. The Nexus Core are far less victim of the ingrained knowledge, so they will be more apt for teaching: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1072174263>
-Hank isn't a ego lifter: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1066077388>
-The human form would probably be horrifying for a Nevadean grunt to behold: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1066606206>
-Auditor didn't possess Hank in MC11, he just fixed Hank up and bossed him around: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1065753000>
-It's not recommended for a Nevadean to extend their arms too far: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1064685376>
-Strength training in Nevada is stress adaptation: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1064557068>
-Hank is actually very strong, Krinkels just thinks of him as "just a guy" because his strength doesn't set him apart from other characters. Hank would definitely 1v1 Deadpool.
-Nevadeans "gain more muscle" by conquering a defeatist mindset and training themselves to move harder: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1063360069>

February

-(Changed his mind) Hank is just a guy, his physical attributes aren't really off the charts. He'd probably be best fighting against other "just a guy" characters, such as Agent 47, Punisher, etc: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1060276085>

-Nevada can't come back to a level of homeostasis, Nevada is in a constant state of flux:
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1054949430>

-Tricky thought in MC5.5 that by putting on Jeb's head, it would grant him his powers:
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1054490671>

January

-The existence of romantic relationships in Nevada is really doubtful:
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1050946168>

-Project Nexus is a pretty big gizmo for resurrecting technology:
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1050502060>

-Christoff taking the chance to end Hank's life forever would depend on his mood and objectives:
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1050208177>

-Breaking the stone on Deimos would hurt him, as the rocks are fused with his body:
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1050482683>

-(Outdated, the Maker is the smartest in terms of knowledge) Tricky/Hoffnar is probably the smartest character: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1049034733>

-Deimos Adventure is in the same canon as the Madness series (again):
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1047327126>

-The A.A.H.W. units are bigger on DedmosRebuilt.flr because Deimos "is a manlet":
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1040731194>

-Dating doesn't happen in Nevada: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1040392040>

-A Nevadean extending his hand across a room is very painful for them:
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1037351452>

2019

December

-Auditor-enhanced Nevadeans probably "see a lot more" than they should:
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1031064033>

-Grunts wear smocks: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1030842359>

-Hank has the same weaknesses as anyone: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1025943892>

November

-Deimos went to the Other Place, Sanford and Hank went inside the Auditor. The Auditor is a tangible living hammerspace that while it shares many characteristics with the Other Place, it is entirely distinct: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1018430728>

-Abominations would win against Zeds, but zombies are more dangerous to the public due to their contagious nature: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1017927893>

-Mags probably have a more distributed nervous system. It's also possible that Mags don't need their brains as much: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1016888644>

-The Sleepwalker's device is used to store S-3LF matter and prevent it from becoming unstable. Abominations are created by implanting a lot of S-3LF too fast. The device detonates when the combat trauma dumps too much training data for the subject to process. Being harmed accelerates the training, that would be the "revival". Putting the device on a corpse would do nothing unless you got a S-3LF and the accompanying data: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1015269871>

October

-Incident: 1000A Tricky would probably defeat Rockmos and Sanford, but lose to MC11 Hank:
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1009581731>

-Everything from M:PN is canon: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1009351876>

-Jebus and the Sheriff went to the Other Place after they died:
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1007140936>

- The Genocider medal in M:PNC is a reference to Dead Rising:
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1005169282>
- The Auditor's name came from the fact that the word "auditor" sounded cool, but it actually referred to something not interesting. The Auditor tangentially relating to a position that keeps peace/order is an afterthought: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1003935226>
- Hank is not a hero, but not really a villain either. Everyone is awful in Nevada:
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1002625130>
- The Auditor is one of many Hells. Deimos went through the greater hell world, the Other Place (the one Hank keeps going to). The Auditor just keeps a more curated audience:
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1002122601>
- The Auditor doesn't seek idolization. The Auditor is a living gateway to a Hell. His job is typically more custodial but Hank and Co. keep screwing things up, so the Auditor conscripted an army, the A.A.H.W., as a means to have access to an endless source of manpower:
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1002079016>
- Sanford would win in an arm-wrestling match against Deimos:
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/1001488616>
- Rich and all of the other Madness characters can age, it's just that Rich didn't have access to clipper or a razor to shave his beard: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/999825430>

September

- The A.A.H.W. sees the Auditor as someone to avoid and appease for their own benefit, rather than someone to be afraid of. Fear isn't a powerful motivator in Nevada:
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/993511641>
- Between an ecstatic, furious or terrified Hank, the ecstatic Hank would be the strongest:
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/992510244>
- 2BDamned choose to pick up Deimos from the Other Place instead of the magnification process, because the latter it's more painful and not the best way to go:
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/982954150>
- Hank gaining his new arm it's like seeing a new color, completely foreign and difficult to describe, but it's quickly adapted to the mind: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/986700523>
- Krinkels decided that Nevadeans should be gray because they would look weird if they were colored in human flesh tones: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/979682413>
- Tricky didn't lose power after the PID was destroyed, it was just a shock to his body which led to him being easily killed by Jebus. Tricky is such a mess that his body still contained a lot of his energy, to which Auditor ended up absorbing: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/980069978>

August

- It's unlikely that A.A.H.W. agents would feign death, as that would require a strong survival instinct and cleverness that they don't have. The Rift cashier in MC6.5 survived:
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/969924939>
- It's uncertain if Soldats and Engineers could go rogue. The dissenter graffiti in MC7 and 2BDamned are related: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/959728048>
- A Nevadean's arm can be ripped off, but it's rare. The "powers that be" don't let it happen too often:
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/960190041>
- Hank is dabbled in real estate: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/953615125>
- Nevadeans probably feel like clay, as their flesh isn't as elastic as human skin:
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/953845996>
- Hank would probably be the stronger by a slight margin compared to Sanford and Deimos:
<https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/945524423>

July

- Jebus is dealing with a significant amount of cognitive dissonance, he's not the hero he makes himself out to be: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/934136770>
- Sanford is a pretty basic guy when it comes to spicy chicken wing sauces, he probably uses sriracha or one of the oilier buffalo wing sauces. Sanford's not one to mess with things that work really well: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/923489638>
- Deimos is ostensibly alive after DedmosRebuilt.fl: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/924808231>
- The Auditor got a little "inverted" after absorbing Tricky in MC10, which explains why he appears in his own dimension. Auditor then wound up dragging Sanford and Hank as well: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/922209079>
- It would be painful to try to wedge between Jeb and the halo, since he's a violent person and not the touchy feely type: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/916428185>

June

- The hot dog vendor/janitor is a contractor for the A.A.H.W., not a mole: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/912687846>
- The A.A.H.W. would probably throw a pizza party if they managed to terminate Hank permanently: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/903212760>
- All Nevadeans are ambidextrous: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/896630236>

May

- 2BDamned is on the same organization as Sanford and Deimos: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/885509172>
- Sanford can eat more spicy chicken wings than both Hank and Deimos combined: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/878921950>
- Deimos felt pain of all varieties while on the Other Place: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/874203518>
- Deimos did not go to the same place that Hank and Sanford went to in MC11: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/873559653>
- Deimos Adventure is in the same canon as the Madness series: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/870758457>
- Hank is 100% hairless: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/869194789>
- Hank still likes to dance: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/867934243>
- Mag Agent: Torture's shade color being inconsistent with the regular agent's shades do not carry any hidden meaning: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/865345583>
- If Hank, Sanford and Deimos were realistic, Hank would be the tallest and Deimos the shortest: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/864162468>

April

- The protagonists take more hits due to stronger constitutions and cognitive endurance: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/840857654>
- Rich's work was in energy logistics: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/840325435>
- Deimos Adventure (obviously) takes place after Deimos died: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/830708712>
- Krinkels got the idea for Sanford's hook due to them being horrible and painful: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/834225519>

March

- Krinkels thinks Jebus might be the most developed character, going from a scientist to a living conduit between worlds. Hank was always the same person. Krinkels rethinks his statement, saying that Deimos might actually be the most developed: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/831497760>

- Jebus is not evil, but his interpretations on what's good and right are skewed. He has too much ego to reevaluate his priorities: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/827932578>
- The halo is a Nexus artifact that enables interaction between worlds. The halo doesn't belong to Christoff but he's more attuned to it: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/822741491>
- Deimos' backpack contains communication/interface equipment and snacks: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/820555657>
- Nevada is the whole world in Madness. The series does not take place on Earth: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/816261552>
- Auditor was drinking sugared drinks in MC6.5 and 8. Auditor's unconventional corporeal form allows him to eat and drink what he wants without consequences: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/810819232>
- Mag Hank's claw was inspired by an enemy in Die by the Sword: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/806521568>
- Rich would probably kill an engineer if he got the drop on them, but it's uncertain if he has the will to do it: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/807409908>
- Hank would probably pet a cat if he had the chance: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/803740413>

February

- Rich earned his "Employee of the Month" title because of perfect attendance: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/797013555>
- Jebus would trust Sanford and Deimos more than Hank due to them being more "human" and easier to read, but not by much: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/788919287>
- Tricky likes toying with his enemies and screwing things up. He doesn't find killing his opponents straight away fun: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/793561543>
- Hank is in a complicated relationship with his job: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/793955344>
- Hank, Sanford, and Deimos probably played poker on the weekends when their work schedules lined up: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/780663582>
- Nevadean hot dogs are NOT the Madness equivalent of Soy lent Green: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/773243153>

January

- The change of Mag Hank's lightning color was just a matter of preference: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/755710380>
- Hank has less of a friendly relationship with Sanford and Deimos (and viceversa), but more that they are kind of after the same thing: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/755840748>
- Jebus as a character came from the fact that Krinkels liked the idea of a turbo pacifist being a violent force of nature: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/755606031>

2018

December

- The idea for the agents came from The Matrix: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/740049726>
- The inspirations for Hank's character were Blade, The Terminator and a Grammaton Cleric: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/735779866>
- Relationships aren't a thing in Nevada: <https://curiouscat.me/Krinkels/post/737888080>
