

Daybreak Elementary
School Community Council Agenda
September 18, 2024
6:00 PM-Faculty Room at Daybreak

Attended by: Rich Wills, Chairman; Stephen Glauser, Co-Chair; Julie Janes, Secretary; Leslie Ewell, Principal; Katon Abnar Behbahani; TJ Davenport, Assistant Principal

1. What is the School Community Council (SCC)?
 - Reviewed the reason for establishing SCC and the responsibilities of SCC members, including communication with families and the community.
2. Elect Chair, Co-Chair, and Secretary
 - Election took place for Chair, Co-Chair, and Secretary
 - Rich Wills was nominated as Chair. Stephen Glauser was nominated as Co-Chair, and Julie Janes was nominated as secretary.
 - All nominations were seconded, and voting was unanimously favored.
3. Revise Rules of Order
 - Rules of order were revised and approved.
4. Budget Discussion
 - Current budget is almost $4,000.
 - SCC budget covers: School Student Council, Choir (music and performance. Not shirts), Digital Safety assembly (needs to be scheduled by Ms. Ewell)
 - Do we want to do a fundraiser this year? This is not required. If we do not have a fundraiser, we can look for other sources of funds.
 - There has been a carnival the last few years
 - Pros: The community likes it
 - Cons: There is a lot of garbage, rules around carnivals, don't make that much money
 - Is there a better way to raise money?
 - The PTA did not want to do a combined fundraiser and split funds.
 - Ideas: Coupon books, art auction, dunking booth, Mario Kart competition or tournament
 - Idea to hold a fundraiser on the night of the STEAM Spring Showcase.
 - Ms. Ewell and Mr. Davenport will look at the policy
 - Rich Wills will look for ideas and develop options for our next meeting.
 - This discussion will be tabled until our next meeting.

Next meeting: Wednesday, November 20th, 6pm

Note: The March meeting was moved from March 19th to March 12th
