

1. What four criteria will you be evaluated on in the IELTS speaking test?

2. TRUE or FALSE. If the examiner doesn't like your answer, he will mark it as wrong.

3. What should you refer to in order to help you provide more information and give a fuller answer in Part 2?

4. How long will you have to prepare your talk in part 2?

5. In part 2, you will be asked to speak continuously for how long?

6. In parts 1 and 2, you will use a variety of speech functions. What are three examples?

7. What are 3 things you should do for part 1? (Your textbook mentions several exam strategies, but you only need to write down 3 to get this question right.)

8. What should you ensure that you pronounce correctly?

9. TRUE or FALSE: For part 2, you should make your ideas flow together, and try to connect the different points on the card.

10. How many parts does the speaking test consist of?

Treasure Hunt

The teacher has hidden 10 questions. See if you can find and answer the questions. The first team to finish will get a prize.

All the questions come from pages 15, 16, and 17 of your textbook, so make sure you take your textbooks with you. The answers to some questions may be the same.

1. A) _____

B) _____

C) _____

D). _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

6. . A) _____

B) _____

C) _____

7. A) _____

B) _____

C) _____

8. _____

9. _____

10. _____

Answers:

1. fluency and coherence, lexical resource, grammatical range and accuracy, and pronunciation
2. False
3. your notes
4. 1 minute
5. 1-2 minutes
6. giving personal information, describing and explaining, and expressing preferences
7. Introduce yourself briefly

Listen to the examiner's questions carefully

Add extra information to extend your answers

Use a variety of speech functions

Keep the marking criteria in mind

Speak fluently, connecting your ideas together logically

Make longer, more grammatically complex sentences

Use a wide range of vocabulary

Ensure you pronounce keywords correctly

8. keywords

9. True

10. 3 parts