Vonetta's mentorship gave me my life back! She helped me remember my joy and passions -- and work through the stuck places. What I appreciate most is that while she offered tools she made sure that I called on my own knowledge and wisdom to get to the next level.

The one thing most scientific disciplines want to know is how we are connected to one another and to our larger ecosystem. Vonetta's institute would provide researchers the gift of exploring important questions that the normative scientific community may shy away from. It will provide a space to bring together knowledge passed on for centuries with modern ways to test and deepen that knowledge to be shared more broadly.

—Dr. Nakia Gordon, Ph.D professor, researcher behavioral neuroscience

To make possible the vision there must fundamentally be careful and supportive stewardship of time, talent, and investments. Vonetta is the rare, balanced, combination of Visionary and Good Steward.

As someone who has been driven my entire career, to drive faster, work harder, reach higher, my two-year mentorship with Vonetta resulted in an extraordinary professional and personal exploration - an exploration that ultimately produced resoundingly impactful programming and historic financial results for my employer.

Vonetta's work with me informed how I now show up in the world – centered, grounded, strong – especially as it relates to my professional work in reproductive rights. Our work together set into motion the vision for a re-imagined annual event that produced the single largest philanthropic donation in the organization's 85+ year history. I directly attribute my work with Vonetta for this particular success (and many others!) – she was the consistent driving force and encouragement to step into re-imagining work and the world through my heart and soul versus ego.

My wish for anyone working with Vonetta is to walk away with an overflowing number of tools and practices, like I have, so you too may show up in the world fully as you – especially you as the force for good only you can be. ”

—Linda Neff, chief philanthropy + brand strategy planned parenthood

There are very few people who have entered my life and transformed my state of being as profoundly as Vonetta. Through her wisdom and energetic radiance, she has opened channels of awareness and curiosity so deeply buried that I thought were lost forever. Vonetta is the tap root and lighting rod of our present age. Like an alchemist, she connects the quadrants of existence to illuminate our inner strength and forge an empathic and collective future for humanity.

Working with Vonetta has been nothing short of a revelation. As someone trained in allopathic medicine (and somewhat of a skeptic), I have come to understand how rare it is for someone with such clear, innate capacity to access the spiritual realm, and simultaneously possess the discipline, sobriety, and purpose requisite for effective leadership to make large-scale change. As our planet reels towards impending climate disaster, heightened interpersonal conflict and estrangement from our natural connection to the earth and each other, there is no one I'd rather guide us into a new way of being. Vonetta holds the wisdom, fortitude, and vision, not to mention humility, required to navigate these challenging times with different tools. She is a veritable gift of light.

—Dr. Rachel Pearl, MD, emergency physician, 2001-present, Cedar Sinai hospital

Vonetta is a cosmic sentinel, a global steward, deeply rooted into her soul's mission to usher in a new world order—one grounded in peace, justice, healing, and transformation. Vonetta is a passionate, creative problem solver and community builder who is tapped into the collective consciousness, clearly seeing and knowing what humanity needs. Thus, she is a true visionary, with a salient understanding of and respect for ancient teachings and wisdom, making her a rare and powerful bridge from the past to the future. My work with her has catalyzed my life's purpose and grounded me in who I am today.

—Miriam Brown, psychologist, MA, LMFT

Over the course of several years, Vonetta guided me through my spiritual awakening. She helped navigate the process of me seeking my truth. I began embodying my authenticity and walking my most aligned path. My inner world flourished as a result, and over time, my business and brand moved in a direction I never thought possible. She gave me guidance that propelled my 5th book to becoming the number one best selling title in all of New Zealand. Vonetta supported me in the risky transition from being the beloved Ambassador of Meat in my home country to inspiring a nation of plant based eaters. I prospered even further in a way that really aligned with my core values.

I now feel I am living my dharma - work no longer feels like work to me because I'm responding to a greater calling. I wouldn't be where I am today without Vonetta. I'm forever grateful she came into my life when she did. She gave me the kick start that opened my eyes, the platform to leap from and the tools to keep living the life I want.

—Chelsea Winter, #1 book author, New Zealand celebrity chef, entrepreneur, food writer + television personality

When I think of my work with Vonetta, I feel deep gratitude for her supporting and guiding me through my own personal journey of discovering who I am. I've learned how to move through life with more grace and joy, connecting me closer to my inner self and to the people I love. She has guided me on my quest of knowing what is most important to me and why I'm here. Most of us have busy work and family lives, not always without the bumps and challenges. I'm sure there are a variety of noble titles one could apply to Vonetta from shaman to healer, spirit guide to blessed angel. Whatever the most apt title may be, I now count my experience with this incredible lady as one of the most significant and transformative experiences of my life, perhaps only surpassed by falling in love with my beautiful wife and the gifts of our children.

The depth and authenticity of her own spiritual connection, her profound wisdom and her beautiful open-hearted humanity are nothing short of the most wonderful gift to us all.

I write this two months following my first encounter with Vonetta as 12 random, relatively unconnected men gathered for a retreat weekend. Deep set traumas were released painlessly, apathy was cast out, and profound connection was established, not just with universal consciousness (or whatever name you might ascribe to it), but with this incredible angel of light and 11 other men who now form part of the essential fabric of my daily experience.

If the experience had been limited to the weekend alone, it would still have been wonderful but this has been a gift that simply keeps on giving. Two months past and the energetic uplift continues, joy, connection, reverence and enchantment with life and our wondrous universal experience. In each glorious moment, there she is again!

Vonetta is a true magician. I came to her at an extremely low point in my career. She helped me channel my own guidance and designed a series of meditations, exclusively for me, aimed at transforming the resonance I carry in the world. I followed her instructions precisely, went deep with the meditations, and within three weeks manifested two new powerful pieces of business. We continued to work together over the next two years and she turned me around from being deep in the red to doubling my income and opportunities. She worked with both my wife and I, saving our marriage of more than thirty years. Vonetta has a heart of gold. She is simply amazing.

—David Aaron Cohen, screenwriter (Friday Night Lights, The Devil's Own)

It is said that when the student is ready, the teacher appears. Vonetta appeared to help me navigate a particularly low period in my life. Our work included one on one mentorship, joint sessions with my partner, and group retreats. Here, I was free to be, to explore more fully who I am. I aligned with my authentic self and the courage to face my challenges head-on. Vonetta helped me shift from the rational brain to my heart. Trust my intuition. Develop compassion and understanding, learning to love more fully. See the connectivity of it all. And have more fun.

My life is immensely richer. I am happier, more free, and at peace. I am forever grateful for this wonderful soul coming into my orbit.

Years later, the program has stayed with me. I tap into the tools every day to get insights, ask small and big questions, and align myself with the universe. It helps me accept the opportunities with the challenges, enjoy every moment, and express gratitude for what I have. I continue to utilize the skills I learned to take better care of myself, access my higher self, and be present in the moment.

I was introduced to Vonetta at a point in my life where I had been sick for three years fighting to recover from Lyme Disease. After my treatments of western medicine plateaued, I adventured out to find alternative ways of healing. Through Vonetta's work, I had a massive healing happen. I went inward, journeying deep into my own soul. I didn't realize I had been holding onto so much hurt. I was able to let go of my distress and be held in love, where so much pain left my body. Today I have a new perspective about my Lyme experience and how it has helped me change the imbalances in my life.

I started my journey to excellence with Vonetta in 2013. But I find myself at a loss when trying to effectively describe her gifts and offerings? Well, for starters, you state the obvious GRACE, ELEGANCE, and BEAUTY. Then, the one word that resonates so loudly in my spirit that describes her practice is "Truth." The genuine care and nurturing you receive in her guided processes of expansion enables you to be vulnerable so that real transformation can happen. When embracing change, the loving support and encouragement that Vonetta always provides is the secret sauce that allows you to reach new heights. I am forever grateful for the "Earth Angel" we call Vonetta.

—Dawn Osborne, CEO Do, Inc, Reiki master

Vonetta led my husband and I to a rebirth in our marriage. We were in patterns of stuck emotions and stuck traumas. Our powerful trip was based on trust, vulnerability, and letting go of what no longer served. Our retreat in Peru healed a 40 year relationship with a wounded heart. It saved our marriage. I met Vonetta one year post departure from my tech career. I was deconstructing my role as a designer, grappling with my decision to leave my job, while trying to understand who I was without my job/role/work defining me. I was unconscious to the fact that I led so much of my life defined by my work. Together we teased apart how I was operating from an imbalance of masculine/feminine energy, fueled by trauma patterns developed in childhood. My wounded young self was running the show. I had no idea how narrow my life was and what was about to open as a result of working with Vonetta. She brought her abundant skill, tender-hearted joy, exuberance, and amazing esoteric knowledge to every one of our sessions. ALL-OF-IT. She taught me ways of healing, intentionality, presence and so much more. I constantly access what I learned through my mentorship and have manifested much of the vision I re-imagined for myself. I feel resourced, balanced, whole, expanded, and so very grateful to have Vonetta in my life.

—Jen Bailey, facilitator and coach, Creative Force

Since our sessions, 1. I have been sleeping 9-11 hours per night. 2. I am changing on a cellular level. My work sessions are more powerful. So many tears coming from my clients. I am feeling my feelings more, letting go in the moment. (Cue black obsidian arrowhead whooshing,) 3 My body wisdom is louder. My mind says that a drink would be nice, but my body firms up and says no with an unmistakable conviction. 4. I feel open. 5. I am keeping up with the meditation. 6. I am exercising, loving myself with reverence. I have now embarked on a life changing journey and our work together has been an incredible catalyst. I am so grateful to you.

My time on retreat with Vonetta was truly life-changing, and I'll be forever thankful. I was at rock bottom and in such deep despair. But Vonetta helped facilitate a rebirth, an awakening so profound that I'm still in awe of the transformation experienced. Over many years I have experienced a variety of therapists, counselors, shamans, and psychologists, so when I attended a Men's Retreat with Vonetta Taylor recently I wasn't expecting to be greatly impressed.

But Vonetta has clearly done her personal inner work at such depth that she exudes a core authenticity that engenders trust and makes her work so much more effective. She employs an array of subtle but powerful techniques, but more important, her open-hearted spirit inspires reciprocal openings in the hearts of her participants.

As a result, in only two days, a random group of troubled men experienced release from prior blockages and traumas to be transformed into a spiritual brotherhood of creative, energized beings capable of living their lives at a new level and of infecting those around them with new joy and peace.

Following the Retreat we were given an excellent Integration Manual to help us to maintain and enhance the progress we had made.

I can thoroughly recommend Vonetta as a consummate professional, operating with a high level of intuitive grace and enchantment.

Vonetta,

My husband's change is astounding. My god. It's a miracle. No words, no counseling, no anything else could have turned the switch the way this weekend retreat has. I can reach him now. So softly and so easily. We are truly connected for maybe the first time in our 29 years of relationship. I saw it in his face the minute I came in and it overwhelmed me so much. It was beautiful. And seeing you sitting there, our blessed angel, I looked into your face and I felt at peace and at home. I felt the healing. It was all so profound and powerful and so sacred. I felt instantly blessed 1000 times over. And my daughters, how much they have grown and how close we have become because of your guidance. It's everything. How blessed we all are. Vonetta words can never express the gratitude I feel from every cell in my body. I love you dearly. Every minute of my life I am beyond grateful.

With love,

I met Vonetta through some family members. I had been struggling with depression, anxiety, grief, barely managing to take care of myself. I had not traveled more than an hour from my home in years.

Vonetta is a fascinating person, always easy-going, welcoming, and fun to joke around with. She led prayers to sacred ancestors and a guided meditation, offering a reassuring transition and direction into the retreat experience. The structure seemed to help a lot with remaining grounded. I did three small group private retreats with her.

I felt like the part of me that had been locked away behind all my trauma was finally present with me, like that part of me is now discovering what I have become, how I have been shutting myself down for so many years. The whole process helped me reconstruct my outlook on feeling and processing painful emotions, getting a different perspective. I gained a great sense of self-acceptance. A reminder of how strange the universe and life really is, and how important my feelings and experiences have been. I just feel more present now. I would definitely work with Vonetta again and recommend her to anyone.

Today, I just returned from a trip to the Pacific coast, the furthest I have been in thirty-five years. I moved to a new city, fell in love, and had a baby. There have been a lot of factors that have brought me to where I am now, but I know Vonetta played an extremely important part moving me from being completely stuck to the freedom I now experience.

Words cannot express how grateful I am to Vonetta. She helped me find my true essence and purpose. My experience working with her was life changing! It all started with a simple question: 'What is it that you really want to create in this life?' That was the springboard on which she was able to help me dive into the ocean of my soul and all its complexities. She was so gentle, patient, and kind as we excavated my shadow side and brought my true self into the light. She was able to see me, feel me, sense me, and guide me in a way that no other person ever has. The experience was so unique and special that I will cherish every moment spent with her for the rest of my life. In the end, I am living with a new and focused sense of purpose. And finally Thank you for you being what you are. And what you are is beyond words. The journey has just started.

I have had many beautiful private and group retreats with Vonetta. The first experience showed me where I was emotionally blocked in my life and later where the emotions were residing in my body. This led to the intention of my second retreat– to release whatever had been held in my uterus for 20 years before having a hysterectomy a month later. Vonetta created a sacred space for me and helped me to feel safe to do whatever I needed to do in order to let go. After a couple hours into my session, I saw that it was shame and self-doubt. It was so clear. When I laid back down and pressed on my lower abdomen I was shocked to find that it was squishy! For many years, it was hard and easy to feel. The stagnation was gone and I could breathe all the way down to my pubic bone. It was incredible to feel instantaneous healing! I am forever grateful. This gave me the confidence to go into my surgery knowing that those emotions would not transfer to another area in my body. I also felt lighter and more present.

I shared some of my experience with my surgeon who is open-minded. She said that it was interesting because she did not find any endometriosis but saw lots of scarring from it. She encouraged me to do another healing when I recover from my surgery.

Thank you Vonetta for allowing me to expose my heart in all of its vulnerability. You have helped me heal in the most profound way for me.

—Cass Hicks, healer, chinese medicine acupuncturist

42.

Working with Vonetta was so much fun and created some important shifts and transformations for me. I noticed a real improvement in my relationship with my husband, where I was able to feel and receive his love in a much deeper way than I ever have before. Another shift that happened was a change in the way I felt about my finances. I was able to get in touch with a feeling of lavish abundance that had really fizzled out in my life. And I became much more engaged, excited, and started having fun again with my finances. I also really loved playing with the guidance to reach out to our higher selves to ask for help. I was able to visualize and see her and recognize her as someone I have known for a long time. I loved deepening that relationship. I have enjoyed incorporating the mantras, mudras, meditations, and breathwork into my daily morning practice and prayer routine. And sharing them with my children. Perhaps most special of all was just spending time with Vonetta as a mentor and sister. Learning about her path, her stories, and her tools was so inspirational and a real delight. I cannot recommend her work enough. For me personally, I would consider it priceless.
