Hi! We're Skywrite Studios, a new visual novel studio! Although the studio is new, our experience in the indie visual novel/game development space is not. We've teamed up to create brand-new collaborative projects and tell stories that excite us. This will be our 2nd project. (Potentially 3rd project, assuming our other project is done before this one.)

"Criminally Yours" is our Yandere Jam entry. It's a superhero/supervillain and office romance. That is equal parts comedic and dramatic. You play the MC who is best known as "Oracle" the superhero of the story. Often clashing heads with the supervillain, "Chronos." Little does the MC know that Chronos has a double life just like the MC and is actually her workplace crush, Nikolaos.

You'll be playing Nikolaos/Chronos going between eccentric, flirtatious, unhinged villain, to charming, thoughtful, and doting Nikolaos. Being able to perform both sides of this character is essential to getting cast.

Rules:

- You must be 18+ to audition. The game itself contains no explicit sexual content, but has suggestive dialogue, and profanity. The game may also have descriptions of violence and sexual activity.
- Name/place pronunciations are important, please take note of phonetic spellings of names to pronounce them properly.
- Try to record at least 3 takes per line during audition, and after being cast.
- Send MP3 to (email) as NIKOLAOS - YOUR NAME.
- MP3 or WAV format in 24-bit/48kHz=2.3MB/s
- USB Mic with Treatment and Quiet Room/Recording Space.
OR XLR Mic with Recording Space.
- Please email your audition file to:
skywritestudiosgames@gmail.com Alongside your audition file, please include your preferred contact method, social media, and general availability. (It's crucial you have or create a Discord account to work on this project.)

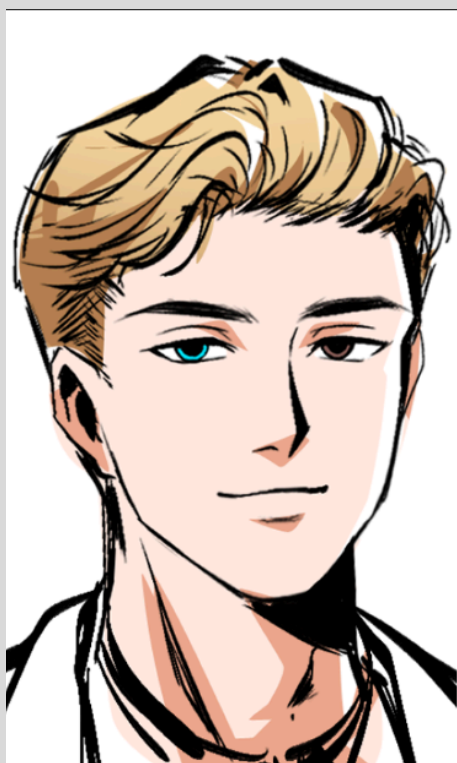

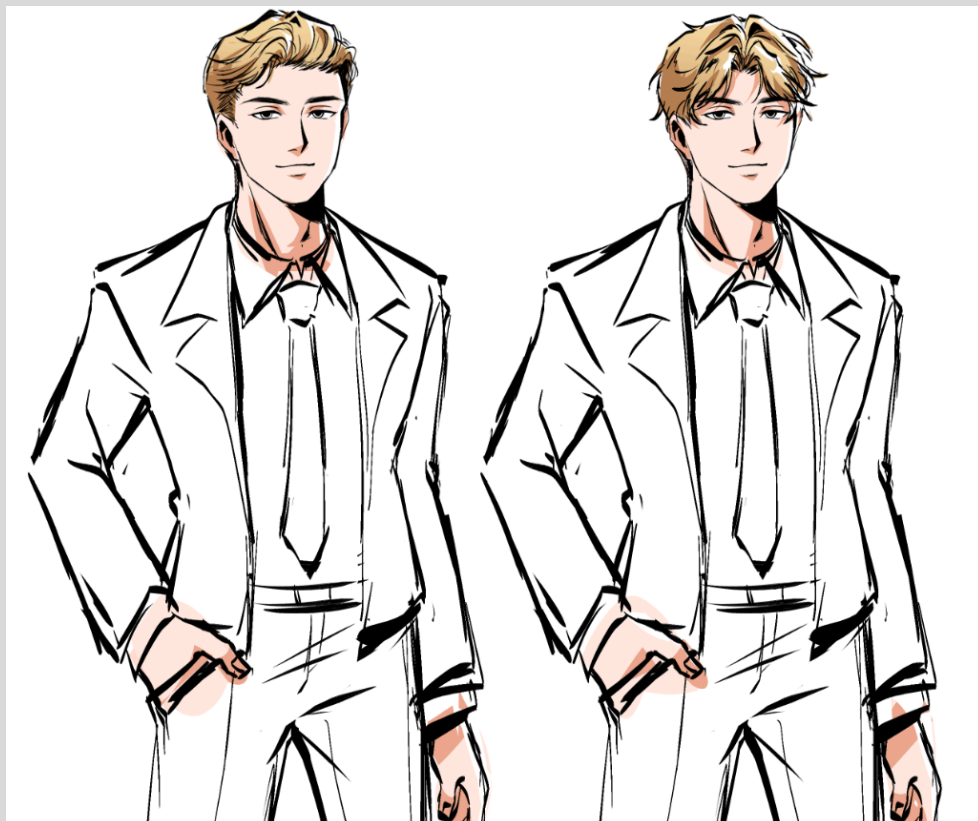

Process:

1. We'll be accepting auditions until the end of February 14th, 2025.
2. When an audition comes in, we'll send a default reply (i.e "Thank you for your submission!") to let the auditioner know we received your message. If you have questions or concerns, we'll answer specifically. Please allow for a couple days to get a response.
3. Starting February 15th 2025, we'll begin considering the VAs.
4. The casting call will be officially closed once we find a VA who accepts the role.
 - a. If you are cast, we aim to contact you by February 16th, 2025.
 - b. If you are not cast, unfortunately we will not be able to reach out individually.

Good luck and most importantly have fun! We look forward to hearing you!
