Every Agent in the game also has a special buff when they meet certain conditions when being assigned to a team known as Additional Abilities. Every Agent's additional abilities are different from each other and they can be triggered when they join a squad with another team member who is from the same Faction as them or shares the same element as them.

These Additional Abilities grant the Agent additional buffs and unlock special unique abilities that benefit them if the conditions are fulfilled. Every Additional Abilities are unique only to the Agent and only benefits the Agent, so if players were to make a team, it is highly recommended to try and fulfill the conditions of every Agent in the team so that they can benefit from their Additional Abilities.

Under most circumstances, base probabilities apply to all Agent, Bangboo, and W-Engine Signals. In cases where guarantees are in effect, please refer to the related rules.

When Proxies first Signal Search on the Stable Channel, the 1st to 5th Ten-Searches cost 20% fewer Master Tapes. From the 6th Ten-Search onwards, the number of Master Tapes required will return to normal.

The first S-Rank Signal Proxies obtain on the Stable Channel is guaranteed to be an Agent Signal. If there are no S-Rank Signals in the first 49 Searches, the 50th is guaranteed to be an S-Rank Signal. The new player guarantee won't expire, but will only take effect once. After Proxies obtain their first S-Rank Signal, further Searches follow the guarantee specified below in the "Stable Channel Signal Search" section.

Dark Blue C: 4 star Relic/Artifact, they're called Disk Drives

Red B: Gacha pulls for the Bangboo banner, Bangboos are like combat pets, but you can only acquire the pull currency via gameplay and events, you can't convert premium currency into them. They're called Boopons (combination of Bangboo and Coupon).

Yellow A: 4 star Weapon/Light Cone, they're called W-Engines.
