Namibia

2027 Global Scholars Field Experience
Culture, Conservation, & Global Citizenship

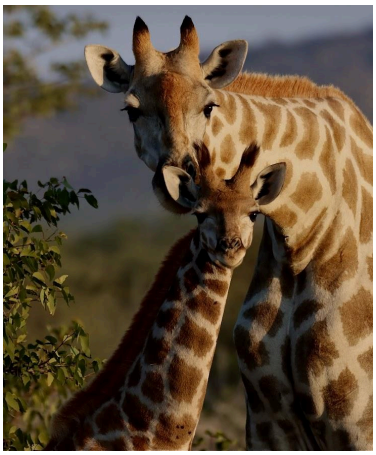

Travel with your classmates for a hands-on Global Scholars learning journey in Namibia. This two-week travel-based learning experience blends cultural exchange, sustainability education, and ecological field learning as students explore how communities balance conservation, indigenous knowledge, and development across diverse landscapes, from desert to ocean to savanna wildlife reserves.

Student & Parent Info Session: Wednesday, February 11, 7:00 pm Google Meet Recording Meeting Slides Highlights & Itinerary	https://tinyurl.com/NamibiaApp Student Application - Due February 24th!

What You'll Do

🤝 Cultural exchange in Windhoek with local youth and community
🏜️ Explore the Namib Desert and hike iconic dunes in Sossusvlei + Deadvlei
🔬 Learn and serve at Gobabeb Research Centre through field study and service collaboration
🌊 Experience where desert meets the sea during a coastal excursion to Sandwich Bay
🦩 Observe flamingos, seals, and marine biodiversity while learning about ocean conservation
🦁 Safari in Etosha National Park with wildlife conservation learning and stewardship ethics
✍️ Reflect on Global citizenship, identity, and ethical travel

Where You'll go

Windhoek • Sossusvlei • Namib-Naukluft National Park • Gobabeb Research Centre • Walvis Bay • Swakopmund • Skeleton Coast • Etosha National Park

WHO CAN APPLY

- Open to all EHS students (Priority given to active Global Scholars students)
- Students curious about culture, sustainability, community learning, and global citizenship
- 24 spots available - apply on time!

WHY JOIN?

- Build global competency through cultural exchange and ethical travel
- Learn how sustainability and conservation look in real communities and ecosystems
- Complete your Global Scholars Capstone course & project by participating!

PROGRAM DETAILS

- Dates: June 14-28, 2027
- Length: 14 days
- Estimated Cost: ~$5,000 per student
- Includes: International flights, in-country travel, lodging, most meals, guides, and park fees
- Financial assistance & fundraising opportunities available

EDINA ROTARY
GLOBAL SCHOLARS