MORE ABOUT ME

Hi, I'm dyce!! I've been roleplaying warriors for around three or four years now! I'm currently fourteen, so that means I started when I was ten! I love to meet people and I usually am pretty friendly, though I suffer from anxiety, depression, and ADHD, so I may seem a little off sometimes! I usually roleplay in three to five paragraphs, but honestly I don't care what length your post is. I usually take roleplays in the other person's direction (rip, not good at initiatives). Final note, my first language is not English (I speak Spanish and a little French and Portuguese) so if my words are unclear that may be the reason why. Hope to roleplay with you soon :D
