Anna Johnson (CHICAGO) devotional electrovocals

Anna Johnson is a performer, composer and visual artist who creates experiences at the boundaries of sound, moving image and installation. Her practice centers body and intuition as primary sites of knowledge, in pursuit of newly vulnerable emotional, spiritual, and social realities.

Renalien (DETROIT) audio visual transmutation

Renalien is an interdisciplinary artist working individually and collaboratively in Detroit within themes of collage, ghosts + telematics.

Jane Marie Rogers (DETROIT) dronesong

Jane Marie Rogers is a multi-instrumentalist based in Detroit, MI. Dedicated to music that inhabits betweennesses and finding spaces between safety, pain, stillness,motion, gentleness, intensity, insularity, intimacy, and change. Alongside their solo projects, they also make music with the free improv/performance art troupe BRIGE, indie-rock heartthrobs Pia the Band and Color by Lettet, and the experimental folk musician Annick Odom.

Kristi Ternes

Audio/video licks and loops

Kristi Ternes is a multimedia artist who has delved deep into the possibilities of projecting light through a universe of infinite holes. The sound hops a ride and loops us back into the light.
