INFO!

Paige Katherine Winterbourne is the daughter of Ruth Winterbourne, former coven leader of the American coven. When Paige was 22 years old, Ruth was taken by this organisation and shortly after, killed. Paige became the leader of the American Coven, and took in a young twelve year old girl, Savannah, whose mother also was killed by the same organisation. However, Paige was only coven leader in name only. The Coven elders were resistant to her being leader, and considered her far too young and reckless.

Six months after Ruth's death and Paige taking in Savannah came a custody battle. A man claiming to be Savannah's father wanted his daughter, but Paige was resistant to the idea, for multiple reasons. One, Savannah's mother wanted her to go to the coven, not her father. Two, Savannah's father was a man named Kristof Nast, heir to the largest crime organization cabal, and Paige feared that Kristof only wanted Savannah for her magic.

During the custody battle, Paige was set up to look like a satanist black witch murderer, which the human media ran with. This resulted in a lot of attention on her, and her coven BANISHING HER, and her home being lit on fire and burning down.

The Custody battle resulted in Savannah thinking Paige had been killed, and her magic going wild as she tried to summon the spirit of her mother. Because of this, Savannah accidentally killed Kristof. Paige managed to get there in time to calm the young witch down and get her out of the collapsing building. The coven refused to let Paige in, so Paige moved to Portland with Savannah and plans to make a new coven, one that will help all witches and not turn their backs to them.
