

USD 417 Libraries
GIFTS

Gift materials will be accepted under the following terms:

--The library may use gifts in accordance with the decision of the librarian in consultation with the faculty and administration.

--Gifts meet the criteria normally used in the selection policy.

--When the library becomes the owner of gift materials, the previous owner gives up all determination as to the use of, or disposal of said materials. This will be explained to the donor at the time the gift is made. No guarantee will be made that the library will retain the material.

--The gift material hence becomes the property of USD # 417 as per board policy.
