

Abstract: The poem, written by Kritika Kashyap, 8th semester, Department of Law, School of Legal Studies, Babasaheb Bhimrao Ambedkar University, Lucknow, is a eulogy to a relationship that has come to an end. The speaker reflects on the sweet moments they shared, the knowing looks they exchanged, and the jokes they shared. They are grateful for the time they had together, even though it was brief. The speaker knows that what they shared was special and cannot be replicated. They say goodbye to their loved ones, knowing that they will cherish the memories they made together.

A Eulogy to Yours and Mine

I could hear sad songs on a loop
But this won't honour our memories,

Of those sweet moments that brought smile to us when we spoke in silence,

And the knowing look we shared with our eyes
as our friends talked in the backdrop,

Only we knew the truth
Or the jokes
that was only ours to cherish,

It was quite the time,

I am grateful that you were mine even though it lasted for just a while,

It did happen
and that is all that matters,

For I know ardently what we shared cannot be compared,

Not even by you or me because in that moment what we felt
only we knew it well,

It was magic,

Unexplainable,

Cannot replicate it even in yours or my mind
as it was back then,

Now it's just a passing delicious scent,

Until I remember you again
Goodbye, my darling,
This is the end.
