
Oluwaseun Dabiri

Software Engineer | Product Manager

Email: dadsclement@gmail.com

Github: <https://github.com/dabsclement>

LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/oluwaseun-dabiri/>

SKILLS

HTML | CSS | JAVASCRIPT | REACT | NODEJS | PRODUCT MANAGEMENT |
MERN STACK

EDUCATION

Udacity Nanodegree in Product Management - November 2021

Google Certificate in Project Management - September 2021

Lagos State University, Lagos Nigeria - Bachelor of Arts in Music

December 2017 - 2021

Yaba College of Technology, Lagos Nigeria - National Diploma in computer science

December 2013 - December 2016

WORK EXPERIENCE

Product Manager - Aufera

June 2021 - Present

- Responsible for the development of the product lifecycle
- Collaborated with the design and engineering team, to ensure the product is built according to the specifications.
- Responsible for the writing and development of Product Requirement Documents and Software Requirement Documents
- Organise and coordinate scrum events like daily stand-ups, sprint planning, sprint retrospective. etc.

Software Engineer - Automation Cube, Texas

January 2020 - April 2021

- Contributed to open-source projects
- Database Design
- Built Applications using React, NodeJs and Golang
- Applied agile software development methodologies
- Software testing and documentation

IT Project Manager - Retynr Technologies Inc

2019 - Present

- Responsible for driving interaction between the Development Team, the Product Owner and all other stakeholders
- Responsible for coordinating the functional specification life cycle
- Tracking project deliverables using appropriate tools
- Delivering working software conformant to all processes and standards as defined.
- Applied Agile project development methodologies to deliver robust, well-tested solutions.
- Planning and ensuring the successful execution of development and reporting on project progress

HNG Internship, Remote - Web Developer

September 2019 - November 2019

- Learnt under the mentorship of Senior Developers
- Collaborated with different teams in building Web applications

OTHER EXPERIENCES

FACEBOOK Developers Circle Training Programme

This is a training program organized by Facebook and Andela between August 2019 to October 2019. The training is to equip the admitted individuals with modern Web development skills. courses were taken through the OpenClassrooms online learning platform and I also participated and attended physical meetups at the Andela office in Lagos.

Core Team Member (DSC) Lagos state university

September 2020 - 2021

- Assisting the club lead in running the club activities.
- Serving as a tutor for members in a web development study group.
- Introducing members to Google events and google technologies.
- Advocating for Google Crowdsourc and introducing students to how they can contribute to open source through Crowdsourc.

Microsoft Student Learn Ambassador (Lagos state University)

August 2020 – 2021

- Learn Student Ambassadors are a global group of campus leaders who are eager to help fellow students, create robust tech communities and develop technical and career skills for the future.
- Organising training and workshops.
- Mentoring other students in web development study groups.

Campus Lead Ambassador (Ingressive for Good, LASU Circle)

August 2020 – 2021

- Ingressive Campus Ambassadors are the individuals who lead I4G Circles across various institutions/cities all over Africa passionate about building the tech and design communities.
- Act as the lead and oversee all Ingressive for good activities on campus.
- Organise at least two workshops every month, these workshops cover both technical and non-technical training.
- Mentor and guide students applying for Ingressive for Good community challenge and Micro-scholarships on their campuses/cities.

Chapter Lead (Open Source Community Africa)

February 2021 - Present

- Advocating and promoting open source in my local community.
- Hosting technical and non-technical events (offline and online) that align with open source goals.
- Leading an engaged communication channel for my chapter.