Dr. Pitlick earned his bachelor's degree in Biology from Simpson College in Indianola, Iowa. He completed medical school at the University of Iowa and traveled north to Mayo Clinic in Rochester, MN where he completed his residency in Internal Medicine and fellowship in Allergy/Immunology in 2020 and 2022, respectively. For the past year he was an Assistant Professor of Medicine in the Division of General Internal Medicine at Mayo Clinic.

Dr. Pitlick grew up in the country, just west of Iowa City, Iowa. He met his wife Jaeda, an Omaha native, while they were both residents at Mayo Clinic. Jaeda is a hospitalist and primary care physician at UNMC. Dr. Pitlick is a passionate Iowa Hawkeye fan, which often clashes with his wife's Husker fandom. In addition to his love of the Hawkeyes, Dr. Pitlick also enjoys golfing, hunting, spending time with his 3 older brothers and 9 nieces/nephews, and playing with his new dog, Ryder.
