

SL: <box_name>, look at the mess you made!!!

<box_name>... You've been acting very naughty lately... 😈

Yes you <box_name>, naughtier than any other <box_industry> coach...

You made me take the biggest shit which led to the most intelligent marketing idea for <box_product>... That'll bring in more clients than ever through your IG and help you absolutely SHIT on your competitors.

And don't worry. I'm not here to "steal" your juicy dollaz...

I'm here because after swiping through IG reels and taking my usual shit...

I came across the most despicable marketing tactic ever in your most recent reel...

And just then a regular shit was turned into the Czar Bomba equivalent of a shit... And it landed all over that <box_industry> of yours! 😭

Yes, <box_name>, that is a 100% real photo of my ass FLYING out of the toilet after seeing your post.

This BIG ASS shit was only possible because your content was so bad that it was... 😊

MORE PUTRID THAN THE SHIT I TOOK!

At a very small attempt to cover up the SHITTY mess, you left behind...

I decided to make some IG reel scripts fueled by the one and only "poopy persuasion" marketing angle.

Hold up, you thought I was gonna scare you shitless with some random fancy link...

I could never. So if you're open to take a look at the "shitty" scripts, shoot an "I need a diaper!" my way.

The One and Only,
Alexis

SL: Poo?

YOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO <box_name>,

Look at what your <box_product> made me do...

Yes, <box_name>, that is a 100% real photo of my ass FLYING out of the toilet after seeing your <box_product>.

I know that sounds CRAZY... But let me clear up the stinky confusion. This MESS happened because after swiping through my FB feed and taking my usual shit...

I came across the most “despicable” marketing tactic ever in your ads promoting that <box_product>...

And just then a regular shit was turned into the Czar Bomba equivalent of a shit... And it landed all over the place! 😭

This BIG ASS shit was only possible because your ad was so crazy.

So in a very small attempt to make the ad less messy and better for converting leads...

(so no one else has to suffer from the shit I went through)

I’ll share some ads I made for you fueled by the one and only “poopy magic” marketing angle.

But hold up, you thought I was gonna scare you shitless with some random fancy link... Never dude, my inbox is too sexy.

So if wanna take a look at the “shitty” ads, shoot a “Get the baking soda and vinegar!” my way.

The One and Only,
Alexis
