

Commission: Special

Topic: The Question Of World War 3

Main Submitter: Mexico

Co-Submitter: Germany

1. Calls Upon nations to increase trade between countries for relational needs;
  - a. trading could create good or better relationships since those countries would have some history with each other,
  - b. there can be trading conventions once a year thus strengthening relationships move,
2. Endorses the formation of a treaty dedicated to the prevention of WWII;
  - a. nations that will sign this treaty must give significant attention to the state of conflict in their country, whether the country is war-torn or conflicted now or ever in the future,
  - b. if a country is recognized as experiencing national threat, like war or invasion, measures must be taken to protect and bring safety to the nation,
  - c. this treaty ensures that countries take the correct precautions towards preventing a third world war. This treaty also ensures that every nation has a backup plan if a war were to break out,