
 Hello! This document is meant for those who may want to follow me or currently do!

The point is to just give you a basic rundown of the things I am interested in, don't really want to be engaged in, and outright do not wish to associate with. Only because I've never really made it clear before lol

(This document is entirely subject to change as opinions may sour or open back up again)

Be sure to read each section thoroughly! Might explain why I followed (or ignored/blocked) you!
