Suggested Packing List

NOTE: Check the weather before you pack! We tend to have highs around 80° and lows around 50°

Gear Label your gear, especially if you are letting someone else borrow!

- Tent
- Tarp for under your tent (optional)
- Sleeping Bag, sleeping pad + pillow
- Camp chair and/or picnic blanket with cushion (seating is BYO)
- Headlamp / flashlight with extra batteries (there is sparse lighting around camp at night)
- Reusable water bottle
- Mess kit: plate & bowl, utensils, camp mug (*we don't provide this)
- Towel
- Knife (if you have one)
- Any additional tools or materials you may want for workshops (optional)

Medical

- Personal medication and any over the counter meds you may want handy
- Electrolytes
- Sun screen
- Ear plugs
- First Aid Supplies
- Bug/tick repellent (zero or low-fragrance, no DEET)
 - There are ticks on this property! We recommend bringing a hand mirror to do tick checks every night and tweezers to have on hand.

Clothing

- Socks (long socks to tuck pants recommended)
- Underwear (bring extra!)
- Pants (especially important with ticks!) and shorts
- T-shirts, long sleeve shirts and a hoody/sweater
- Warm clothing for at night (it gets cold in the mountains!)
- Rain gear (rain jacket, rain pants, rain boots)
- Sun hat + winter hat (in case it's cold at night)
- Bandana (serves as your napkin too!)
- Boots & sandals
- Swimsuit (optional)
- White clothing for Shabbat (optional)

Personal

- Wooden Name tag if you have it from last time or other gatherings
- Cash (for purchasing goods + some classes will have a materials fee)
- Toiletries (no fragrances please)
- Snacks, which must be in bear-proof storage containers or left in your car
- Your own siddur / prayerbook and any other ritual items (optional)
- Hand-Made wares and crafts to trade (optional)
- Item for the village altar (optional)
- Journal, camera, anything else that makes your heart sparkle
