

The Practice of Eucharist

The sacrament of Eucharist was instituted by Jesus at the Last Supper (Luke 22:7-20), practiced by Him after His resurrection (Luke 24:30-35) and given further explanation by the Apostle Paul to the church in Corinth (1 Cor. 11:17-34).

In taking Eucharist, we are not only remembering Jesus' sacrifice of body and blood for the redemption of the world, we are also mysteriously united with Christ. The Apostle Paul takes this union seriously, "Is not the cup of thanksgiving for which we give thanks a participation in the blood of Christ? And is not the bread that we break a participation in the body of Christ?" (1 Cor. 10:16). Furthermore, Eucharist, while personal and intimate, is more than individualistic as we believe that followers of Jesus are also united and mysteriously made one body by sharing in the bread and cup (1 Cor. 10:17).

While we believe nothing magical occurs during Eucharist, something mysterious, real and powerful does. As a result of our theology, we partake in Eucharist on a weekly basis, generally at the end of our worship gathering as a crescendo.

We invite ALL (regardless of denomination) who have begun the journey to trust Jesus as Savior, Teacher and Lord to partake in the Sacrament of Eucharist. If you have not made a decision to follow Christ, please feel free to abstain as we are seeking to create an atmosphere of authenticity in which no one is manipulated into acting against their conscience.

Practicalities: When you come forward for Eucharist, come when you feel ready at your leisure down the center aisle. Receive a piece of bread and then dip that piece of bread into either wine or grape juice before eating it. Then you may return to your seat.

Call to Worship

To those who are hungry, Jesus says:

"Come and eat! There's more than enough for all!"

To those who are thirsty, he says:

"Come and drink! It's free for the taking!"

Stop wasting your money on food that doesn't satisfy.

"Come to Me, and you will find everything you need!"

What does this relational harmony hinge on?

What are some things to note about this tree of knowledge of good and evil?

What kind of knowledge is this good and evil?

We were not created to live independently of _____

What happened when Adam and Eve took and ate?

Where is the next time we have this phrase take and eat in scripture?

What significance does that have?

New Headwaters Sign

We have completely updated the church building exterior and property; except for one thing - our sign. We have an opportunity in partnership with Capitol High Students to build a new metal sign. We just need to provide the materials. All said and done this will cost just under $2,000. We would love to receive above and beyond to cover this cost. Please vote on your favorite design.

Headwaters Leadership Team

Hannah Hageman, our current Chair, at our most recent LT meeting let us know that she is stepping down, saying, "I have been struggling to find time and energy to set aside for church leadership and it is time for me to step down. I was hoping I could do it all, but I cannot, and I know myself well enough to know when to call it." Our current team is: Ben Fleury, Luke Eidt, Terri Murray, Seth Dombach. This puts us well below a quorum. We are more healthy, stable and unified when we have a variety of gifted folks as part of our team. Please prayerful consider being part of our Leadership Team. If you have questions about anything please contact Pastor Seth. Thanks for considering this important role on behalf of our church family.

Bookkeeper Help

Faye has done a wonderful job serving us but is needing to take a step back. So we are in need of bookkeeping help. If this is an area you or someone you know is able to help us with, please contact Pastor Seth.
