

Transfer Race and Ethnic Studies Requirement (RESR) approved courses (updated August 2023)

Students entering PSU with fewer than 90 college credit hours must take one course which focuses on the U.S. experience (domestic/D) and another which centers the experience of groups under European and U.S. colonialism and imperialism beyond the U.S. (international/I). One of those courses must be taken within the School of Gender, Race and Nations units (BST, CHLA, NAS, WS).

Students entering with 90 or more credits need one RESR course, which does not need to be taken within the SGRN units and can be from either of the lists below.

Transfer students can talk with an advisor to see if they have transfer credits that will meet the RESR. The courses below are automatically approved.
