warnings.

this blog is trigger heavy and will frequently contain the following:

- mentions of suicide and suicide attempts.
- mentions and explicit displays of self harm.
- mentions and explicit displays of emotional and physical abuse.
- mentions of sexual assault.
- depictions of mental illness.
- frequent cursing.

if you are triggered by these topics or are not comfortable with them, please do not follow. because of the explicit nature of this blog, minors should not follow or interact.

should you need something tagged, please tell me! all triggering content will be tagged with “tw” or “cw”. “tw” is usually reserved for explicit displays of stuff and “cw” for mentions of it.

rule 1.

this blog is semi-selective. i'll rp with mostly everyone, canon and OCs, under a few conditions:

- you must have a bio for your muse(s)! i'd like to learn about them prior to interacting so we can plot and possibly form pre-established relationships. plus i just enjoy learning about other peoples' characters :]
- i don't rp with depictions of real people (such as someone rping as an actor instead of the character the actor plays).
- both real life and animated and/or drawn faceclaims are perfectly fine!

if we are mutuals or i follow first, i'm interested! if i don't, please don't be offended. i just think our muses wouldn't mesh.

rule 2.

i don't mind darker threads, in fact i adore them! you have my permission to be mean to fabian, manipulate him, beat him up, etc. however, i will not rp rape/pedophilia/etc. also, please don't godmod!

if you're interested in a thread, we can plot or we can wing it. it's up to you and your preferences – i can go either way. feel free to send icebreaker memes to approach that initial interaction between our muses!

smut won't be present on this blog. sorry!

rule 3.

i don't practice reblog karma. i will reblog memes from their source but you are free to reblog memes from me without sending anything.

rule 4.

take your time with replies! i understand that muse for certain threads can and does leave from time to time and life gets in the way. don't stress if you're taking a while to reply. on that note, if you need or want to drop a thread for whatever reason, go for it and don't stress. you don't have to justify this to me - we're all here to have fun.

don't worry about matching length. i do tend to ramble so my replies get a little long, but again you don't have to match my length. just give me something to work with and we're good to go.

here's a little about me!

- i live in the us and work 8-5.
- i love cats & have 2 of my own.
- i love gaming, reading, & animals.
- my favorite genres of music are italo-disco, synthpop, & gothic country.
- i adore sharon tate and will use her as a fc for myself when needed, like here!

i have 15+ years of roleplaying experience. i started off on various forums and deviantart before migrating over here in 2012 and i've stuck here since. i took a hiatus for several years but i feel good about coming back now. i consider myself an “ old timer “ and am still adjusting to the new trends and lingo after my long hiatus!

i am passionate about corrections and criminal justice, and try to do as much research as i can to make my funny little muse realistic. if you see any inaccuracies, though, please point them out to me! i've never been to prison or even jail myself so all of this is just what i've researched from books, college classes, and documentaries.

i have bipolar disorder, OCD, and C-PTSD and also a full time job so my activity here may be a little sporadic. feel free to shoot me a DM if you ever want to chat! mutuals can ask for my silly discord.
