

Privacy Policy for Google Play Build

Effective date: June 2, 2026

This Privacy Policy applies to the Android app build distributed via Google Play.

1. Current App Scope (Google Play)

The current Google Play build provides only the following sections:

- Home
- News
- Events

2. Data We Collect

To provide and maintain the app, we process limited technical data:

- device model;
- operating system version;
- app version and build number;
- system language;
- system time zone;
- technical diagnostics and error logs;
- temporary session token required for content delivery.

3. Data We Do Not Collect in the Current Build

In the current Google Play build, we do not collect:

- precise geolocation data;
- contacts, photos, or files from your device;
- payment card data;
- biometric data;

- personal data for sale to third parties.

4. How We Use Data

We use data only to:

- deliver core app functionality (Home, News, Events);
- maintain service stability and performance;
- detect, prevent, and investigate technical issues and abuse;
- comply with legal obligations.

We do not sell personal data.

5. Sharing of Data

Limited technical data may be processed by:

- hosting and infrastructure providers;
- monitoring/diagnostic providers used for service reliability;
- competent authorities when disclosure is required by law.

6. Security Measures

We apply appropriate technical and organizational safeguards, including:

- encrypted network transport (HTTPS/TLS);
- access controls based on least privilege;
- dependency and vulnerability management;
- production release hardening and monitoring.

7. Data Retention

Data is retained only as long as reasonably necessary for operations, security, support, and legal compliance, and then deleted or anonymized where possible.

8. Children

This app is not intended for children under the minimum age required by applicable law in the target market.

9. Future Changes (Location and Push)

If future app versions introduce location-based features or push notifications, we will update this Privacy Policy and Google Play Data safety disclosures before or at release.

10. Your Rights and Contact

Depending on applicable law, you may have rights to request access, correction, deletion, restriction, objection, or portability of your data.
