B- Reading( 10 Marks )

A)Read the following passage then answer the questions:

Human beings have always needed somewhere safe and comfortable to live in . Our ancient ancestors often used caves. But later they learnt to build houses to keep out wild animals and bad weather. Long ago the Masai people started houses together in circles to become a strong wall. At night they brought their cows and goats to the center to keep them safe from dangerous animals. Some of them have continued to live like that until today. In other places , people also found natural ways to protect themselves from climates. In cold wet places, traditional houses were low with thick walls , and small windows faced away from the wind. In the hot dry Middle East, they built their houses with thick white walls .
