ABSTRACT

Write the abstract in English. The Abstract should be informative and completely self-explanatory, provide a clear statement of the problem, explain the reason why this study is important to do, explain the research method used, the proposed approach, and point out major findings and conclusions. The Abstract should be 150 to 200 words in length. Standard nomenclature should be used, abbreviations should be avoided, and no literature should be cited. The keyword list provides the opportunity to add keywords, used by the indexing and abstracting services, in addition to those already present in the title. Judicious use of keywords may increase the ease with which interested parties can locate the article.

INTRODUCTION

The introduction should provide a clear background, a clear statement of the problem, explain the reason why this study is important to do, the relevant literature on the subject, the proposed approach, as well as the urgency. The research's state-of-the-art is necessary to be explained within the introduction to show novelty and originality of the topic to be discussed and presented. The manuscript structure is Introduction - Methods - Results and Discussion – Conclusion. The length of the submitted paper is at least at least 5.000 words and a maximum of 7.000 words

This article format is intended to provide a comprehensive understanding to the readers or colleagues on what the article discusses and delivers. This section must present theories or concepts too (select ones in line with the focus of analysis) and/or research type to be used. Note that citations must be taken from textbooks/e-books and journal articles and from five years back.

METHODS

Methods comprise brief information concerning research paradigm to be applied, approach(es), method(s), and type/characteristic (please select one of them) as the leading format for your research. Mention unit of analysis with comprehensive data analysis. Meanwhile, tables and figures are presented center, as shown below and cited in the manuscript.

The author must write narratives before and after the pictures and tables. Each instrument must be orderly numbered and given a title, followed by source from which you make the citation. Should the instrument is the result from the author's analysis, please write: 'source: author's analysis.'

RESULT AND DISCUSSION

This part presents results and analysis of the findings. Figures or graphs can also be presented here to support your findings. We suggest that you mention supporting instrument(s), in forms of illustration, figure, photograph, table, and graph. In addition this part also contains discussion according to the research findings. In presenting the discussion, use a comprehensive explanation in order to elaborate the whole data found during the research. By doing so, you can fill gap of knowledge. Findings that rely on meaning construct tends to present a theoretical framework, so there will be an unnecessary repetition as it has been presented in the research methods.

CONCLUSION

In addition to concluding remarks, this part also presents recommendation as well as implication of the finding as a whole, either intended to broaden methodological realm or to develop a theoretical framework, as such that it outreaches the users from broader societies. Moreover, it can also be added the prospect of further studies into the next (based on result and discussion).
