Materials and Supplies

Materials 1

WHAT you need to bring to class every day:

1. Pens/pencils: try to have at least three different colors
2. A minimum of two notebooks (that are dedicated to this class, only); one will be for your daily writings (you will turn this periodically for review); one will be for you and your notes (you may also want to have the teacher check this, periodically)
3. A folder in which to keep loose papers, handouts, readings, and other materials
4. Note: Your smartphone will occasionally be used for class activities. If its use has not been approved, you MUST NOT USE IT OR VIEW IT DURING CLASS. You will be given break time to check your messages, etc.

Materials 2: Electronic et al

WHAT you need to obtain or have available for this course, this semester:

1. Access to GoogleDrive and the ability to create GoogleDocs
2. Access to a computer and printer
4. Access to and familiarity with Zoom (via a device with a camera and a microphone) so that you can meet on Zoom Online for Office Hours, et al.

Books and Other Reading Materials

The majority of the required readings for this class will be supplied to you, free of charge. You will be able to find them on BrightSpace. The Instructor will also supply printed readings. You are responsible for bringing these to class.

Additional Readings: the Instructor may recommend a couple of personal readings for you to purchase during the course of the semester (a book, newspaper, magazine...). These will be announced later, as they will be based on your interests and the Instructor's assessment of your needs.
