FAQ

I want to shop the sale! How will I know where to go?

This event is neighborhood-wide, that means that you'll find individual houses with yard sales all over the entire neighborhood of Tacony!

We will have a digital map, as well as physical maps at every participating house. You can see the digital map here: <https://maphub.net/taconycdc/yard-sale>

Keep in mind that this is not yet everybody! More homes are signing up every day.

I'm coming to Tacony, how do I get there?

Tacony is accessible via public transport on the Regional Rail Trenton Line, or on Bus Routes 56 and 84.

If you are driving, we're at exit 30 on I-95, or can be reached using Roosevelt Boulevard.

New Jersey friends can cross the Tacony-Palmyra bridge straight into the neighborhood!

Where should I park?

We do not have any public lots, but there is plenty of on-street parking throughout the neighborhood. The only street with paid parking is Torresdale Avenue.

It's recommended to take a look at the map: <https://maphub.net/taconycdc/yard-sale> and decide if there's a specific area you would like to visit first. Park on the street there, and when your hands get full you can load up and drive a short trip to another spot in the neighborhood!

I forgot - where are the maps?

Everywhere! You can access the digital map here: <https://maphub.net/taconycdc/yard-sale>

Each participating house will have physical maps to take with you, and we will put them in public institutions such as the Tacony Library as well. The physical maps will go out the week of the sale. September 1 is the last day for participants to sign up, then we have to get them printed and will distribute them as soon as possible.

How do I pay for the stuff that I want/what is the price range?

This is all going to be up to individual sellers. Best practice is to expect to buy with cash, but some might be able to take Venmo/Cashapp/Paypal, and some really savvy sellers might even have a way to take card.

What if I get hungry?

There's plenty of food in Tacony! Some neighbors will have baked goods, and there are several restaurants in the area, mostly on Torresdale and Princeton Avenues. Some businesses will be running special sales just for this event too! The physical maps (found at every yard sale that day) will have coupons and details about that.

Will there be public bathrooms?

Some participating locations, such as the Tacony LAB Community Arts Center at 6918 Torresdale Avenue. The Tacony Library at 6742 Torresdale Avenue will be open on Saturday and also has public restrooms.

It is up to the discretion of participating home owners if they would like to allow shoppers to use their bathrooms.

Wait - this sounds AWESOME! Can I sell too?
