"A picture is worth a thousand words"

The expression "A picture is worth a thousand words" refers to the idea that a complex idea can be conveyed with just a single still image. It also characterizes one of the main goals of visualization namely making it possible to absorb large amounts of information quickly.

Procedure:

- This work is going to be presented in a power point presentation
- You will work in pairs
- Choose a photographer from the following list – (wikipedia)

- Divide the work into slides according to the following instructions:

First slide: A title, the name of the photographer, his picture and names of pupils.

Second slide: Fill in the following I.D. (identity) card for your photographer:

I.D. Card

Name: _____

Surname: _____

Date of birth: _____

Country & city of birth: _____

Type of photographer: _____

How did he start? _____

_____

A short description of his life and his work (50 – 60 words)

_____

Third – Eighth slides:

1. Choose 5 pictures of this photographer and put each picture in a different slide.
2. Write the name of the picture with a short explanation under each picture
3. Create a new folder called Photographers.
4. Save the power point presentation as JPG picture. Each slide will become a single picture.
5. Open the Animoto program and upload the pictures to the Animoto and create a movie.
6. Embed this movie in the Blog "Famous Photographers" which you were invited to via mail .
