Alright, I'm sure you're dyin' to hear how everythin's been goin' so I'm not gonna waste any time on this message.

hav'nt seen ya in... 3 months now, so I've got a slew of update'n ta do don't I....

ari's started leavin' the house! Finally, am'i'right? It's about damn time this kid found a hobby! Seems he likes diggin' up shiny shit. It's worth a pretty penny but he aint sold any! Just keeps em on the winda sill in his room, says he likes the rainbows.

What rainbows? They're all solid colors... Anyway, farms good. Ari helps, but he ain't no good at pushin' a plow or anythin'. He ain't you, hah!

....ahem we expanded the crops we're growin'. I know, I know, you like the simple shit, what we been doin' f'rever, but I figured out an easy way to grow tsamma melons and hey! They don't actually need much, desert fruit n'all...

...we miss ya, love. This place's... Too big.. for jus'a two of us.

tell me when you find what you're lookin' for.

[a muffled child's voice] cas, are you okay?
