

PAX West 2024 #MargaritaQuest

The rules: go to 4 different locations from the list below. Take a photo of you/your group & your food and/or beverage, post to social media and tag the photo with “#MargaritaQuest”. Once you have completed the quest, you can find me at the Pinny Arcade Community Meetup (currently listed as being in Community Room 2, 3:00-4:30pm as of Aug 30 update ~~1:30-2:30pm each day of PAX as of Aug 27~~) to claim your reward:

First come first served, when I run out, I run out. That hasn't happened since the last PAX South, but I'll post updates on Twitter if inventory starts running low.

The List:

Pine Box: Cap Hill, their happy hour is called “holy hour”.

Inside Passage: Cap Hill, reservations required. Slightly cheaper than Trader Sam's.

Pie Bar: Cap Hill, pie and booze? Yes please.

Korn Dog: Cap Hill, Korean corn dogs, the superior form of corn dogs. In your face, state fairs.

Piroshky Piroshky: Downtown, get one, get enough to be given a complimentary tote bag, idc.

Tat's: Pioneer Square, best East Coast sandwiches on the West Coast. Bring a friend, these sandwiches are monsters.

Katsu Burger: Cap Hill, the business name says it all.

Dick's: any of their locations, sometimes the best medicine is bringing a bag of Dick's back to the con to share with friends.

Serious Pie: Downtown, don't sleep on that potato pizza. Half sized pies discounted for happy hour, one of the best deals in downtown.

Any Brewery or Distillery: pick a spot, there are plenty. Food trucks outside of a brewery or distillery count as well, in case you're sober and just hanging out with friends.

Pecado Bueno: Fremont, out of the way, but my favorite margarita spot in the area. Chill vibes, relaxed patio, unlimited chips and salsa are worth every penny.

Biscuit Bitch: Downtown, order ahead, prepare to wait.

Molly Moon's: Cap Hill, best logo of all the ice cream shops?
