

American Experience Course Proficiencies 2016-2017

Discipline Proficiencies	Course Proficiencies
Read	☐ Summary: I can summarize to comprehend a variety of complex texts. ☐ Analysis & Interpretation: I can analyze and interpret to comprehend a variety of complex texts.
Write	☐ Language and Style: I can produce clear and coherent narrative and argument writing for a variety of purposes and audiences, with accuracy of language conventions and style. ☐ Purpose: I can produce narrative and argument writing with a clear purpose that is maintained throughout. ☐ Evidence and Details: I can organize to establish relationships among reasoning, relevant details, and evidence (properly cited when appropriate).
Inquiry	☐ Inquiry: I can use inquiry skill to develop and research questions, locate and evaluate sources, and synthesize information from multiple sources.
Speaking & Listening	☐ Presenting: I can implement effective presentation techniques. ☐ Listening: I can participate in a dialogue of ideas by listening actively. ☐ Speaking: I can participate in a dialogue of ideas by speaking with relevance and respect.
Understanding & Applying Content & Concepts	☐ Historical Knowledge and Understanding: I can demonstrate knowledge and understanding of history and civics.
Identify Patterns and Perspectives	☐ Perspectives: I can explore and make connections among multiple perspectives, cultures, and social groups, from past to present.