

Roll a Response!
	Write a letter to the author expressing your opinion of the book.
	Draw a comic strip retelling the important parts of the book.
	Illustrate your favorite part of the story. Write a caption.
	Compare an event in the story to something that's happened in your life
	Imagine this book was turned into a movie. Create a poster to advertise it!
	Write a different ending for the book.

© lucky to be in first 2015

700 x 901

Ideas for engaging students beyond reading that will encourage reading comprehension...

KEEP SCROLLING...

There are more at the bottom.

- Create a Cootie Catcher with Comprehension Questions about the story and Quiz Family and Friends.
- Create and Illustrate a Time Line of the Story's events in Order.
- Create an Advertisement for an Event in the Story
- Pick a Character in the Story and Write their "back story."

- Create a Meme that Shares the Theme or Moral of the Story.
- Create a Social Media Post about some aspects of the story.
- Write a review of the story and explain why you would or wouldn't recommend the story.
- Pick a Character in Story and Create a 5 Day "Day in the Life of" Journal. Write it as though you are that character.
- Make a Board Game of the Story.
- Make a Who, What, When, Where Table and only include pictures or words to depict the story.

Who?	What?
When?	Where?