

Summer 2022 Social Sciences, Fine Arts & Humanities URGO

Presentation Schedule

Monday, July 25th

Kennedy, 303A

Please join us for the URGO student researchers' final presentations of their summer work. Their presentations reflect the culmination of hours of effort on a range of unique and compelling topics. All are welcome to attend.

9am - "Investigating Mental Health and Help-Seeking Attitudes in the Black Community"
Asma Noor (faculty mentor: A. Ajayi)

9:20am - Title TBD
Maria Kratz (faculty mentor A. Heiderscheit)

9:40am - "Human Experience Through Linguistic Lenses"
Autumn Ochodnicki (faculty mentor J. Towle)

10am - BREAK

10:10am - "Insurrection Day: Idea of Play through Social Media of January 6th"
Alexa Martin (faculty mentor R. Groven)

10:30am - "Exploring Place: Discussing the Relationships Between People, the Environment, and Environmentalism"
MJ Whitaker-Long (faculty mentor K. Chamberlain)

10:50am - "Presenting 'The House of Atreus,' a Musical of Love and Fate"
Luke Reilly (faculty mentor C. Adams)

11:10am BREAK

11:20am - "Examining Associations Between COVID-19 Narrative Agency, Body Self-worth, and Disordered Eating Behaviors Over Time: A Prospective Study"
Julia Stensaas (faculty mentor A. Ajayi)

11:40am - "Beyond Potlucks and Parties: Other Potential Mitigations for Social Isolation & Loneliness in Homebound and At-risk Populations"
Elizabeth Goff (faculty mentor B. Denking)