	New Articles from padlet and email.
3	Jasmine Nikhwai - Ban on Conversion therapy I wanted to make everyone aware of this news https://www.bbc.co.uk/news/uk-60947028 which is really awful! Especially after trans-vis day only yday! I've spoken to my lgbt+ committee and would love to try and organise something to support trans and gender diverse individuals! I would love any ideas and support for this! My society are looking to do a charity bake sale for the mermaids charity and would love as much support as possible in any form! Happy to discuss more at our next meeting.
4	Alice Lundy - Issues affecting Disabled Students and some possible solutions

	LSPs - Students and Lecturers may be unsure of what their role is in the LSPs. I raised this point which we've spoken about before to the Disability Team - In the meeting I would like to explain what they said. DSA - Many students with Mental Health conditions do not know they are eligible for Disabled Student Allowance - I will be working with the Sabbs to raise some awareness on this issue and would love to invite some of you to support this?
5	Dan Smith - Wellbeing after Trans CV Government U-Turn After the government U-Turn on Transgender conversion therapy, and speaking to a few of my friends at the university, I think a lot of Trans/NB students are distressed about what's happening in the media right now and I think that the CCSU should make sure that the trans* student body has access to mental health resources. Is there any way MH resources specifically for Trans/NB students can be improved?
6	Jasmine Nikhwai - Ban on Conversion therapy The new layout of blackboard is a welcome change, it seems far easier to navigate and I hope it proves to have better accessibility. However, I noticed the addition of being able to add pronouns to your 'profile'. Although originally excited about this concept, I was quickly disappointed as the selection of pronouns is dire. Myself and many individuals have suggested this be changed and made more flexible. We should be opening the door to diversity and flexibility when it comes to gender identity and sexuality, not constricting students!
