

7 Things You Need Before You Fill Out the 2021-2022 FAFSA Form

If you need financial aid to help you pay for college, you must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) form. The 2021-2022 FAFSA will be made available on October 1, 2020. You should fill it out as soon as possible on the official government site, fafsa.gov.

It'll be easier to complete the FAFSA form if you gather all the necessary information ahead of time. Below is what you'll need to fill out the form.

1. Your FSA ID*

An FSA ID is a username and password that you can use to log in to certain U.S. Department of Education (ED) websites. Each student, and one parent of each dependent student, will need an FSA ID to complete the FAFSA process on fafsa.gov. We recommend creating your FSA ID early - even before you're ready to complete the FAFSA form - to avoid delays in the process.

Follow this link to create an FSA ID: <https://studentaid.gov/fsa-id/create-account/launch>

IMPORTANT: Do NOT create an FSA ID on behalf of someone else. That means parents should not create FSA IDs for their children and vice versa. Doing so may result in issues signing and submitting the FAFSA form and could lead to financial aid delays. (Also, it's against the rules to create an FSA ID for someone else.)

To summarize:

- ❖ Anyone who plans to fill out the 2021-2022 FAFSA form should create an FSA ID as soon as possible.
- ❖ If you are required to provide parent information on your FAFSA form, your parent should create an FSA ID too.
- ❖ Because your FSA ID is equivalent to your signature, parents and students each need to create their own FSA IDs using their own, unique email address and phone number. You and your parent(s) cannot use the same email address when creating an FSA ID. Parents should not create an FSA ID for their child and vice versa.
- ❖ In some situations, you may need to wait up to three days to use your FSA ID after creating it. If you want to avoid FAFSA delays, create your FSA ID now.

2. Your Social Security number*

You can find the number on your Social Security card. If you don't have access to it, and don't know where it is, ask your parent or legal guardian or get a new or replacement Social Security card from the Social Security Administration. If you are not a U.S. citizen, but meet Federal Student Aid's basic eligibility requirements, you'll also need your Alien Registration number.

3. Your Driver's License Number

If you don't have a driver's license, you can skip this step.

4. Your 2019 Tax Records*

In case you didn't hear about the changes made to the FAFSA process, beginning with the 2017-18 FAFSA form, we now require you to report income information from an earlier tax year (prior-prior).

- ❖ On the 2021-2022 FAFSA form, you (and your parents, if applicable) will report your 2019 income information, rather than your 2020 income information.
- ❖ Since you'll already have filed your 2019 taxes by the time the FAFSA form launches, you'll be able to import your tax information into the FAFSA form right away using the IRS Data Retrieval Tool (DRT). (No more logging back in to update after filing taxes!)
- ❖ Not everyone is eligible to use the IRS DRT and the IRS DRT does not input all the financial information required on the FAFSA form. Therefore, you should have your 2019 tax return and 2019 W-2 available for reference.

The IRS DRT returned with the 2018-2019 FAFSA form on October 1, 2017. The IRS DRT remains the fastest, most accurate way to input your tax return information into the FAFSA form. To address security and privacy concerns related to the IRS DRT, the tax return information you transfer from the IRS will no longer be displayed on fafsa.gov or the IRS DRT webpage. Instead you'll see "Transferred from the IRS" in the appropriate fields on fafsa.gov.

- ❖ You cannot use your 2020 tax information. We understand that for some families, 2019 tax income doesn't accurately reflect your current financial situation. If you have experienced a reduction in income since the 2019 tax year, you should complete the FAFSA form with the info it asks for (2019), and then contact each of the schools to which you are applying to explain and document the change in income. They have the ability to assess your situation and make adjustments to your FAFSA form if warranted.

- ❖ You cannot update your 2021-2022 FAFSA form with your 2020 tax information after filing 2020 taxes. 2019 information is what's required. No updates necessary; no updates allowed.

5. Records or your untaxed income***

The FAFSA questions about untaxed income may or may not apply to you, but they include things like child support received, interest income, and veterans noneducation benefits. On the 2021-2022 FAFSA form, you'll report 2019 tax or calendar year information when asked these questions.

6. Records of your assets (money)***

This includes savings and checking account balances, as well as the value of investments such as stocks and bonds and real estate (except the home in which your family lives). You should report the current amounts as of the date you sign the FAFSA form, rather than the 2019 tax year amounts.

NOTE: Misreporting the value of investments is a common FAFSA mistake. Please carefully review what is and is not considered a student investment and parent investment to make sure you don't over - or under - report. You may be surprised by what can (and cannot) be excluded.

7. List of the schools(s) you are interested in attending

Be sure to add any college you're considering, even if you haven't applied or been accepted yet.

- ❖ Even if there is only a slight chance you'll apply to a college, list the school on your FAFSA form. You can always remove schools later if you decide not to apply, but if you wait to add a school, you could miss out on first come, first served financial aid.
- ❖ The schools you list on your FAFSA form will automatically receive your FAFSA results electronically. They will use your FAFSA information to determine the types and amounts of financial aid you may receive.

- ❖ If you add a school to your FAFSA form and later decide not to apply for admission to that school, that's OK! The school likely won't offer you aid until you've been accepted anyway.
- ❖ You can list up to 10 schools on your FAFSA form at a time. If you're applying to more than 10 schools, follow this link to find out what to do:
<https://fafsa.ed.gov/help/fotwfaq14.htm>

TIP: To be considered for state aid, several states require you to list schools in a particular order (for instance, you might need to list a state school first). Find out whether your state has a requirement for the order in which you list schools on your FAFSA form by following this link: <https://studentaid.gov/apply-for-aid/fafsa/filling-out/school-list>

*If you're a dependent student, you will need this information for your parents as well.
