SUN Wen (CHN) after winning 4:0 against Tomokazu HARIMOTO (JPN) in Men's Singles R32:

"I am happy to have won against him. He is one of the top players in the world, so I am really happy about the win. I was better prepared for this match, and had the upper hand in terms of mentality coming into the contest as a challenger. I just tried my best to fight against him.

"Coming into the match, his speed and quality of balls weren't as good as I had expected so there was more room for me in the game, probably also because he's under bigger pressure playing in his home court. All in all, I still have to learn from him."

CHEN QI (CHN), SUN Wen's coach:

"Harimoto is currently the main competitor of the Chinese team and very highly ranked on the world ranking. Playing on home soil also gives him a lot of pressure, so in comparison, Sun Wen had a better mentality going into the game."
