RowsfireApp Beta v1 Internal Testing Agreement

1. Definition and Scope of Agreement

This Agreement is a legal contract between you and Rowsfire regarding your participation in the internal testing of RowsfireApp Beta v1 (hereinafter referred to as the "Beta Test"). The Beta Test refers to a limited testing activity where the Company invites specific users to experience and provide feedback prior to the official release of the Software.

2. Eligibility and Selection

The Company reserves the right to decide whether to accept your application at its sole discretion based on criteria such as testing requirements, device models, system versions, and regional distribution. Even if you have installed the beta version, this does not constitute the Company's commitment to allowing you to continue participating in subsequent tests.

3. Purpose of Testing and Scope of License

The Company grants you a personal, non-transferable, non-exclusive, and revocable limited license to use the Software solely for testing purposes on devices owned or controlled by you during the testing period. Beyond the aforementioned purpose, you shall not lease, lend, sell, sublicense, or use the Software for any commercial activities.

4. Confidentiality Obligations (Bidirectional)

4.1 Scope of Confidential Information

Including but not limited to:a) The beta version of the Software and any of its components, screenshots, logs, and error reports;b) Unpublished product plans, data, and documents obtained by you through beta test channels;c) The fact that you are participating in the Beta Test itself.

4.2 Confidentiality Measures

Without the Company's prior written consent, you shall not disclose, upload, publish, comment on, or imply the above information to any third party in any form. Upon completion of the test or upon the Company's request, you shall immediately delete all installation packages and related data, and submit a written confirmation of destruction.

4.3 Liability for Breach

If you violate the confidentiality clauses, the Company shall have the right to require you to compensate for all losses incurred by the Company (including but not limited to attorney fees, public relations fees, and lost business opportunities) and reserve the right to pursue further legal liability.

5. User Conduct Standards

Prohibited Conduct

a) Reverse engineering, decompiling, or extracting the source code of the Software;
b) Deleting or altering copyright notices, watermarks, or log markers;
c) Publishing or disseminating illegal or infringing content;
d) Exploiting vulnerabilities for profit or conducting attacks, scans, or infiltrations;
e) Providing test accounts, installation packages, or activation codes to third parties.

6. Feedback and Data Collection

You agree that the Company may collect your device information, operation logs, crash reports, and voluntarily submitted feedback (including questionnaires, screenshots, text, or voice messages) during the testing period. You shall retain the right of attribution to such feedback, but hereby authorize the Company and its affiliates to permanently, free of charge, and globally use, modify, and publish the above feedback in any manner without the need for additional consent or payment.

7. Risk Disclosure and Disclaimer
The beta version of the Software may contain incomplete functions, data loss, system crashes, compatibility issues, or security vulnerabilities. You shall back up your data independently and assume all risks. The Company shall be exempt from liability for any direct or indirect losses arising from the use of the beta version to the maximum extent permitted by law.

8. Termination and Withdrawal from Testing
The Company may, at any time without prior notice or cause:a) Suspend or terminate the provision of the Beta Test to you;b) Remotely disable the beta version;c) Require you to delete the Software and related materials.
You may also withdraw from the test at any time by submitting a written application to the Company and immediately deleting the Software.

9. Ownership of Intellectual Property Rights
All intellectual property rights in the Software, all its copies, derivative works, feedback data, test reports, and other related materials belong exclusively to the Company. Any rights not expressly granted herein are reserved by the Company.
