

PRESS RELEASE
from
Steve Blumenthal
Director of Athletics
North Haven Public Schools
North Haven, CT

The North Haven High School Athletic Department is excited to announce the appointment of Peter Tseperkas as the new and first head coach for the North Haven High School Wrestling Program.

Peter previously coached wrestling for Stratford High from 2004 to 2010. Before that, from 1999 to 2004, he coached Salem (MA) High's wrestling team. For the past 5 years, Coach Tseperkas has taught Brazilian Jiu Jitsu at Soulcraft Martial Arts. Additionally, Pete has been a volunteer coach for Amity Youth Wrestling in Woodbridge and with North Haven Youth Football for the past 4 seasons.

Athletic Director Steve Blumenthal stated, "We are very excited to have Coach Tseperkas as North Haven's first ever wrestling coach at North Haven High School. Pete has the energy, enthusiasm and knowledge to get North Haven Wrestling off the ground and have the program be competitive in the very near future."

As an athlete, Pete wrestled under the legendary Bob Skelton at Western New England University. In high school, Pete was a 4-year letter winner for top-ranked Rocky Point High School on Long Island, and was a 2-time conference place winner and runner up. He was a multiple time state placewinner in New York for Greco-Roman and Freestyle at the youth and Cadet levels. Pete is a middle school science teacher in Stratford, and a volunteer EMT. He currently lives in North Haven with his wife and 3 children.

