The third quality is iffy, but based on the promise Thor makes him in Assault on 42. I could have added lots of powers (nullify illusions) but instead I claimed they're all stunts of the Bloodaxe.

- He likes stunts. With the axe, we've seen fireball (Blast), freezing people (Stunning), opening the Trench (Stretching, perhaps). Half of what he does with the axe seems to be one time only.
- The performance on Dimensional Travel is cutting the pathway. You could also claim it's preparation, but I liked it as a specific move he has to complete. It might be needless point-shaving (to balance out the Passengers extra), because the Source limitation might be enough. Comments?

- After Hulk takes his axe as a trophy, we see him with guns, justifying the Limit: Source.
