ABSTRACT (10 PT, Bold): An Abstract should be short and to the points, usually limited to between 150 and 200 words. The Abstract only needs to describe the topic(s) to be concerned, the problem(s) to be solved, the method or solution to be proposed, and the main findings or contributions being achieved. The well-known common sense can be introduced in the Introduction. Keywords should be no less than 3 and not exceed 5.

I. INTRODUCTION (11 PT)

The main text format consists of a flat left-right columns on A4 paper. The margin text from the left and top are 2.5 cm, right and bottom are 2.5 cm. The manuscript is written in Microsoft Word, 1.15 space, Time New Roman 11 pt, and maximum 10 pages for original research article, or maximum 15 pages for review/survey paper, which can be downloaded at the website:

The focus of a paper should be on the exposition of the body of the paper, rather than the Introduction, Background and Related Work, although these are also essential parts of a paper, so as to avoid being top-heavy.

This section introduces : i) a clear background, ii) a clear statement of the problem, iii) the relevant literature on the subject, iv) the proposed approach or solution, and v) the new value of research which is innovation (within 3-6 paragraphs). It should be understandable to colleagues from a broad range of scientific disciplines [1].

II. RESEARCH DESIGN OR PROCEDURES (11 PT)

A research procedure is about the form of algorithms, Pseudocode, or other, how to test, and data acquisition acquisition[2]–[3].

A) Section Title

Each major section begins with a Heading in 11 point Times New Roman font numbered using Roman numerals (except for Acknowledgement and References).

III. HELP HINTS

A) Figures and Tables

Place figures and tables AFTER their first mention in the text. Figure captions should be centered below the figures; table captions should be centered above. Use the abbreviation “Fig. 1,” even at the beginning of a sentence.

To figure axis labels, use words rather than symbols. Do not label axes only with units. Do not label axes with a ratio of quantities and units. Figure labels should be legible, about 9-point type. Color figures will be appearing only in online publication.

Fig. 1 Note how the caption is centered in the column. Note that keep the texts and coordinate values in about 9 pt

TABLE I: TYPE SIZES FOR CAMERA-READY PAPERS (9PT)

Type size (pts.)	Appearance
	Regular	Bold	Italic
6	Table captions, ^a table superscripts
8	Section titles, tables, table names, first letters in table captions, figure captions, footnotes, text subscripts, and superscripts
9	References, authors' biographies	Abstract
10	Authors' affiliations, main text, equations, first letters in section titles		Subheading
11	Authors' names
24	Paper title

B) References

Number citations consecutively in square brackets [4]. No punctuation follows the bracket [5]. Use “Ref. [5]” or “Reference [5]” at the beginning of a sentence:

IV. RESULTS AND DISCUSSION (11 PT)

In this section, it is explained the results of research and at the same time is given the comprehensive discussion. Results can be presented in figures, graphs, tables and others that make the reader understand easily [6], [7]. The discussion can be made in several sub-sections.

Equations should be placed at the center of the line and provided consecutively with equation numbers in parentheses flushed to the right margin, as in (1). The use of Microsoft Equation Editor or MathType is preferred.

All symbols that have been used in the equations should be defined in the following text.

V. CONCLUSION

A conclusion section is usually required. Although a conclusion may review the main points of the paper, do not replicate the abstract as the conclusion. A conclusion might elaborate on the importance of the work or suggest applications and extensions.

Appendix A : APPENDIX TITLE

Appendices, if needed, is numbered by A, B, C... Use two spaces before APPENDIX TITLE.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This section should acknowledge individuals who provided personal assistance to the work.

FUNDING INFORMATION

This section should describe sources of funding agency that have supported the work.
