Description:

"After laughing your asses off @ the video and judging at how poorly I performed, you may ask, why did I lip sync/dance? And what does that have to correlate with the theme of the challenge? Well, the reason why I did this was because through this EMVV experience I've learnt to learn and accept my sexuality, and how I've grown from it. Through EMVV, it truly was a transitional period of my life as I've learn to not care about being judged or even discriminated. I've met people whom are extremely accepting and caring, towards me and I've met lasting friends along the way! In the video, I did a dance attempt/lip sync of the performance "Greedy" which was featured in RuPaul's Drag race, and decided to reinforce the scene again in Valentina's elimination. The song "greedy" represents my desire to win this competition, I have 3 trophies now and none of them are gold, and I really do want one :P. The lip sync/dancing part represents my acceptance for being the crazy - energetic - illogical person, it's truly fun to be yourself. And lastly, the reacting of the Valentina Scene from Rupaul's drag race was the ENJOYABLE Journey I've gone through in the LGBT community. The main thing about EMVV was that, I had lots of fun participating in it and I don't regret joining this!! Thank you!! (ps take note that I did the video at 3AM with my parents asleep and basically had no time to do that many redo's so!!)
