

CLAY

TSUNAMI

GLORY

STARFLIGHT

SUNNY

Ay. Yuh.

D-O-D on the beat.

P-P-Pyrrhia made another one!

Do I have to say one, too? Uh... hi!

Hey, big guy, you wanna start us off?

Alright, here we go.

CLAY

Bitch it's motherfuckin' Clay [Clayyyyyy]

Fresh out the mud, you already heard, I'm bouta go in [bitch it's Clayyyyyy]

You acting all tough, but I can't be burned, bitch look at my skin

Firescales from head to toe, you wish you had a piece of this

Red as blood up in this hoe, with Peril feelin' on my – haha...

Everybody wanna come up in my cave right now

Everybody want these flames right now

Fire running in my veins right now

Take a look at me flex these gains liiike...

Flying circles 'round you like I'm Peter Pan

Stuntin' from the mountains, and I Never Land

Out the bunch I'm the biggest

I'll eat you for lunch if you get in my business

You got no chance of survival, unlike Blaze, you got no style

I'm the BigWings, I'm the rap king, like my appetite, the bars unrivaled

You already know that we don't play, my friends and I, we go all day

Like a scavenger, you're just meek prey, now check the fire that I spray...

Get it?

You don't want this smoke
Open up your mouth and you just gonna get choked
After this war has lasted twenty years
I'll still be on top, cause I am the GOAT!

Mmmm... goat. Is anybody else hungry all of a sudden?

Three moons, Clay.

What?

Too many big words for you, huh?

Here, just give me the mic.

TSUNAMI

Round two, coming in, it's your girl [Tsunami]
Step to me, I'll send you flyin' home [to mommy]
Call me Riptide, bitch, 'cause I'm switching the flow up
I'm stylin' on you with my Aquatic bitch, ay – call that a glow up

I'm the hunter now, and you're the hunted
Ain't even eighteen, but we keep it a hunnid

Like my own dad (whoops), I'll beat you with ease
Better stay on land, cause I rule these seas!

My teeth are like knives, my claws fulla rage
I'm comin' for you, from under the waves
I'm blowin' you out of the water

Oh, see the queen over there? I'm her daughter. (haha)

Started in a cave, now I got a palace
Savage on the track, goin' automatic

Motion in the ocean with the bars so classic

Livin' out here like a star, no Patrick, ay

We enemies, we are on different trajectories
Call you Talons cause you bouta rest in Peace

Can't face the intensity
Got you frozen in shock — Anemone! [uh-NEH-muh-nee]

Like seaweed, you're turnin' green
Pyrrhian princess rappin' so clean

So when I swim up, best take a seat
Cause I don't need fire to bring on the heat!

And that's how it's done.

Please, you call that rapping?

What, you think you can do better?

Naturally.

Well, your majesty, you have the floor.

Ha, ha.

GLORY

Yeah, son, it's Glory on the mic
You can't ignore me when I strike
You think that you all that? You better check it, bitch
Cause here's the story of my life
I built myself from the ground up, in this kingdom where I wound up *
Queen of the RainWings, bitch, so let's turn all the sound up

You know I'm always on that royal grind
Mixtape on rewind
You talk all cap, I got you trapped
Behind my bars like Mastermind *
Don't need no Wings of Sky to fulfill my destiny *

So check the technique, this queen is goin' in on the beat *

I'm makin' moves, you better check that 'tude
Chillin' in the sun catchin' Z's with the crew
But we can still fuck you up don't be fooled
You never see us comin' bitch *
Yeah I know that you wish you had drip like this
Colors changin' so quick like this
Venom spittin', no I'm never missin'
Always on the rhythm rappin' sick like this, ay *

I own this chorus
Like a tree in the forest (what??)
I got it all, it's true
Why rule one tribe, when you can rule two?
I'm a survivor, can't be replaced,
Like Scarlet I'll melt off your whole fuckin' face
My head on a swivel, I'm ready to go
But you're just a sloth, bitch – too damn slow.

Impressive.

Thank you.

But I think we all know which one of us knows the most words...

...wait, a- are you talking about me?

Yeah, bro, get in there!

Okay, uh, if you say so. ahem

STARFLIGHT

Yo, are we feelin' alright? [Alright!]
Ay, back it up, bring it in, Starflight

All I do is win, haters fuckin' mad at me
Livin' like a king, while I'm up in this academy, uh
Flow so hot like lava
You know I want that drama

I can read you like a book

Like Queen Battlewinner, you 'bouta get cooked

Ain't no scroll I haven't seen

My vocabulary mean

You'll be dead up on the scene

Black out, like it's Halloween, ay

(yuh) bury 'em

I'm a facts-spittin' librarian

When you step to me

You'll be seein' stars, planetarium

Yeah I'm masterful, syntactical

A natural at all things grammatical

An animal, like Hannibal you know that I'm tactical

Flash like stars and my bars unmatchable, ay

Up in Jade Mountain with scrolls on scrolls

Sittin' here countin' these rolls on rolls

Fool, who are you?

Any day I can take you to school!

Yeah it's true I may be blind, still I got that clear sight

Like the moons I'm gonna rise from the shadows, Dark Knight

Every night - flyin' high up on this town

Don't need powers to foresee your sorry tail is going down!

Now THAT was rapping!

Yeah, way to go!

C'mon, that was nothing.

Well, I think that's all of us...

Hey!

Kidding! Show 'em how you do it.

SUNNY

Yo, check it I'm reppin' the desert you better be sweatin'

Might not be so big but you still know my naaaame!

Yeah, bitch, I'm back again

Sunny on the beat, with the heat, never lackin' it

No barb but I still sting, gotcha panickin'

Flowin' like sand, gotcha mad, call ya Anakin, ay

You thought that I was done? Still rappin' this

Droppin' bombs, with the dragon flames, no cactus

Draggin' your feet, but you still can't imagine this

Mama on the throne, and my daddy is a animus

[ayyy!] Smallest of all like I always is

[ayyy!] But don't walk up with all that confidence

[ayyy!] I'm positive that you ain't toppin' this

[ayyy!] Shut your lid like a sarcophagus

I call you pharaoh, cause I'm burvin' ya

I don't care if ya scary or tough

I got courage, I got bravery

You're stuck in this sand, so quick, can't compare me to ya

Now let's take it back

Everybody tellin' me that I lack

But you know I can still get in a scrap

I'm the baddest, that's a fact

All gold, like a treasure room

Stronghold, you ain't gettin' through

Got them heads turnin'

When I Blister, Blaze, and Burn 'em

If you think that you the best you lyin' more than Morrowseer [Morrowseer!]

Cause the dragonets are comin' for your whole fucking career [fucking career!]

May not be a fighter, still too easy

Like a dragonbite viper, got you tweaking

Can't match my phonics, you're losin' composure

Now peep the Eye of Onyx... this battle is over!

That was fun.

Hey, you guys tryna fly back with me to the rainforest?

Always.

As long as there's something to eat!

Hey, who has the keys to the Academy?

Yeah, about that, I, uh... may have lost them.

Oh, goddammit Starflight!

Remind me why we gave them to the only one of us who can't see again?
