

Senate Bill 24325

Promoting Galactic Security and Preventing the Rise of Sith Sympathies in the Unknown Regions

We the Senate of the Galactic Alliance, in defense of our national interests, and in the interests of promoting overall Galactic Security do hereby enact the following sanctions against the Eternal Empire for their gross violation of Alliance sovereignty and their continued support of the Sith Empire:

1. The Starbird Trade Spine, Corellian Trade Spine, the Corellian Run, the Hydian Way, the Parlemian Trade Route, and the Daragon Trail will be formally closed to trade and travel from members and subjects of the Eternal Empire.
 - a. To this end, the Senate directs the Chancellor to order the positioning of gravity well projection ships to be moved in place at key points along these trade routes. Ships will be pulled out of hyperspace for inspection at these checkpoints and all ships belonging to the Eternal Empire will be detained.
 - b. The checkpoints will be positions at [REDACTED PURSUANT TO SENATE BILL 12300 RE: MATTERS OF NATIONAL SECURITY]
2. All assets of Ingrid L'lerim and her key ministers that are governed by or within the authority of the Galactic Alliance to do so, are hereby seized and impounded until further notice.
 - a. Ingrid L'lerim and her key ministers are forbidden from doing trade within or with members of the Galactic Alliance.
 - b. All foreign assets of the Eternal Empire within the authority of the Galactic Alliance to seize, are hereby seized and frozen, including those of private citizens.
 - c. Any asset or assets that pass within the territory of the Galactic Alliance are considered within the authority of the Alliance to seize.
3. The Galactic Alliance will place an embargo on all goods produced within or originating from sources within or related to the Eternal Empire. The sale or purchase of goods produced within or in relation to the Eternal Empire will be considered a Class D Criminal Offense under Galactic Trade Code 2334.
4. The Eternal Empire is hereby considered an enemy of the Galactic Alliance and any faction or nation that harbors or gives comfort to the same shall similarly be subject to these sanctions.
5. These sanctions shall continue until the Senate revokes their force.
